CDS kicked off the summer season early with the “Diana: A Celebration” exhibit at the Civic Center on May 29th. The 3rd annual CDS Memorial Day picnic at Shorty Howell Park in Duluth attracted a good crowd of both members and friends. Saturday June 5th, some folks took in the sights at the annual Airshow at Peachtree-Dekalb airport, and June 11th a small but lively bunch attended a free concert by The Mike Veal Band at Thrasher Park in Norcross. The next day intrepid hikers ventured out to experience nature at Little Mulberry Park near Auburn. Later on, the Movie Nite feature, “Did You Hear about the Morgans?” was a hit, as were the food and fellowship. The following Friday, a small group opted for a picnic supper with jazz and poetry under the stars from Kodak Harrison at the Callanwolde Fine Arts Center. The month wrapped up on the fourth Sunday with a night of good times and great fellowship at the monthly social at Abbot’s Bar and Grill. Great times with a great group and great friends.
