

The Reverend Michael Matheny serves in his third year as a Deacon at The Cathedral Church of St. Luke, an Anglo-Catholic and orthodox church in the Diocese of Central Florida. He serves on the Evangelism Commission for the Diocese and teaches evangelism workshops in parishes throughout Central Florida. He is an Instructor at the Institute of Christian Studies at All Saints in Winter Park, and holds a Bachelor of Arts from Rhodes College in Memphis, Tennessee, and a Master of Arts from Rollins College in Winter Park, Florida. His professional experience has been in Communications beginning in film, then video, and most other aspects of corporate and industrial communications. Currently, he is a media producer and consultant, producing instructional media for training, corporate communications, and marketing initiatives.

Course: Evangelism: Sharing Jesus without Fear and Joyfully
through Servant Ministry

Course Date: May 8, 2010

Course Overview: This course presents several unique methods of relational evangelism. Participants will learn the true meaning of success in Christian witnessing. Goals include learning to tell your personal faith story, share that story without fear in a variety of ways, and demonstrate God's love before saying a word.

Pre-Class Reading:

One of the Following Books

Share Jesus without Fear by William Fay and Linda Shepherd (ISBN-13: 9780805418392)

Conspiracy of Kindness by Steve Sjogren (ISBN 0-8307-3407-4)

Becoming a Contagious Christian by Bill Hybels and Mark Mittelberg, (ISBN 0-310-21008-9)

Session 1: Evangelism or Marketing Jesus....What is the first impression?

Session 2: Developing a heart to share Jesus and Learning the Ways

Session 3: Servant Ministry in action and the "Conspiracy of Kindness"

Session 4: Can Christianity be Contagious in a Secular World?

School for Ministry Development, May 8, 2010

The Rev. Michael Matheny, Deacon
The Cathedral Church of St. Luke
1321 East Pine Street
Orlando, FL 32801
407.898.6861
servantleader@me.com