Sharing the Pastor's Heart...

What an amazing God we serve! Each of us experiences His love in a variety of ways everyday. God's kindness to my family is undeniable. Let me say again and again: we are humbled and excited to be part of the Trinity Family, and we look forward to all that God has in store. Thank you for the opportunity to serve you as your pastor. If you see me dancing in the halls at times, please don't be alarmed. Please don't try to hook me up on the show Dancing with the Stars. (by the way, did Emmitt Smith win that competition?) If you see me dancing, just remember that David danced before the Lord (and the nation, 1 Sam 6) because of the goodness of God. It is a good thing to be "happy in Jesus."

But let's remember that not everyone is happy in Jesus. In fact, we were reminded recently of the world's contempt for Jesus. Vulgar comedian Kathy Griffin in an award acceptance speech became the latest spokesperson for those who hate Christ. Griffin boastfully proclaimed that her new Creative Arts Emmy is now her god. Griffin, of course, was attempting to be funny, but there is more truth to her comment than she probably realizes.

The world is enslaved to sin and serves a multiplicity of false gods. What a sad reality. Hear the words of the Psalmist in Psalm 135:15-18: "The idols of the nations are silver and gold, the work of human hands. They have mouths, but do not speak; they have eyes, but do not see; they have ears, but do not hear, nor is there any breath in their mouths. Those who make them become like them, so do all who trust in them!"

When the world around us becomes boastful in sin and relentlessly attacks the glory of Jesus, we ought to remember that we serve an amazing God, who unlike the gods of the world, is all-powerful. Let us not forget our responsibility to pray for, and proclaim Christ to, such mockers, remembering that apart from God's grace, we too would be enslaved to sin, serving impotent gods, becoming like them - helpless, impotent, dead.

Serving together,
Nate

Thank you for the generous love offering you have given to help with the many expenses related to the situation. We are richly blessed by our Lord and by your love.
