

Looking ?
for a minister •

Search Committee Orientation

How do I find resumes?

What questions do I ask references?

Can the congregation have input into the process?

What's the difference between confidential and secretive?

What questions should I ask the prospective minister and spouse?

This training is designed for lay persons, search committees, ministers, and other interested persons. Individual local church committee orientation is available by calling David Al Myers, 267-3794.