Here's what couples who attended the class had to say about it...

"I really like the practical, down-to-earth yet Biblical basis for Pastor Singer's approach. So many areas covered were excellent."

"I wish the class was longer. I feel like we just scratched the surface. Thanks for a great class."

About the Built to Last Class...

You love your spouse, and are willing to do what it takes to make your marriage even better. Attend Built to Last, a class for couples seeking to grow and strengthen their marriage with a foundation of faith and communication.

Taught by Pastor Chris Singer, and using the Prepare-Enrich on-line assessment, this class series will give you the opportunity to evaluate strength and growth areas of your marriage, and work together to make your marriage all that God envisions it to be.

About the Prepare-Enrich tool...

The Prepare-Enrich assessment helps you to better understand your unique point of view and that of your spouse, regarding the following important aspects of marriage:

- Communication
- Conflict resolution
- Finances
- Family
- Faith

There is a $40 materials fee per couple, which covers the cost to administer the Prepare/Enrich assessment. Fee is payable at the first class session.
