

Burnamwood Report

Here's what's been happening since the last Presbytery meeting:

- We've had 10 great summer camps!
- We've had 19 rentals!
- We've renovated Unit Lodge.
- We are in the process of renovating the New Bathhouse, furnishing the Director's House (soon to be re-named), and improving the grounds.
- We've mailed out fundraising letters and Fall retreat fliers.

Here's what's coming up:

- Fall retreats! Get those children, youth, and families signed up!
- If you are interested in scheduling a church group getaway, look to mid-November, because our weekends are booked until then.
- We have lots of non-Presbyterian rentals on the schedule as well.
- Once our current renovations are done, we'll turn our attention to the Dining Hall in 2010.

Here's what makes us nervous in 2009:

- Fundraising! Fundraising! Fundraising! Is it time for a Burnamwood Sunday at your church? Contact me and let's plan it together.

Looking ahead to 2010:

- B.A.M.– You've received the flier, you know what it is (Burnamwood Appalachian Ministry-In case you forgot). Now it's time to act. Bring a group to BW for mission work during the summer of 2010.
- The full 2010 program schedule is now available and will be widely distributed very soon. Get dates on your calendars now and advertise them in your churches early. Why not turn Burnamwood retreats into retreats for your entire youth group?
- In January, we have our annual college retreat and Confirmation retreat. Have a confirmation class this Spring? Why not kick it off with an event at Burnamwood? Get in touch with me and let's talk.
- Please remember Burnamwood in your 2010 church (and personal) budgets!
