

Small Camp. Big Fun. Huge Memories.

Burnamwood strives to foster the spiritual development of children, youth and adults in a faith-based, positive and energetic environment, located on 500-acres in the foothills of Appalachia where the "Bluegrass kisses the mountains."

Burnamwood Camp is in Estill County, less than an hour from Lexington.

~ June ~

- 7-10 Counselor-in-Training Retreat
- 12-16 Senior High Adventure
- 13-17 3rd-5th Grade Conference
- 19-24 Senior High Conference
- 26-July 1 Middle School Conference

~ July ~

- 6-8 1st-2nd Grade Mini-Camp
- 6-8 Middle School Adventure
- 10-15 Night Owl Camp - Grades 8-12
- 25-29 MADD Camp - Grades 3-6

"Check our website for all drop-off and pick-up times."

A "typical" day

- 7:30am, Morning bell
- Breakfast
- Hygiene
- Cabin cleanup
- Energizers
- Keynote 1
- Morning Reflection
- Small group 1
- Group Activity
- 12:00pm, Lunch
- Siesta
- Keynote 2
- Small group 2
- Free Time
- 5:00pm, Dinner
- Small Group 2
- Camp -Wide Game
- Snack
- Worship
- Campfire (Final Night)
- Cabin Time/Hygiene
- 10:30 Lights Outs

April 21-23: 1st - 5th Grade Spring Retreat

April 22: Spring Work Day

10AM - 5PM

Lunch is provided $5

RSVP for Lunch

info@burnamwood.net

May 27-28

Alumni Family Reunion

- Limited to Immediate family

-Optional: Bring your own tent

For more information & to register, visit www.burnamwood.net or call Executive Director Robby Lear (859) 494-9113

900 Burnamwood Road, Irvine, KY 40336
(606) 723-2572