As you make plans to attend the summer Presbytery Meeting at First Presbyterian Church in Prestonsburg on June 7, 2008, plan to arrive a day early for Fellowship in the Mountains. We are offering a variety of recreational and educational activities in the beautiful mountains of Eastern Kentucky, including:

- † Friday, June 6 @ 2:00 p.m.—Mission Trip to Low-Income Housing Sites In Rural Appalachia. Remembering our Presbytery’s mission priority of low-income housing, we invite you to take a short trip into the mountains. There we will visit low-income housing sites receiving much-needed work. You will be inspired by the strength and vision of the people, as well as their needs. We also will visit “Norma’s Nest,” a bunk-house available to you to house your mission or youth work groups who wish to work on housing sites. “Norma’s Nest” is owned by the Low Income Housing Coalition of Eastern Kentucky (LINKS), which leads work groups of any/no skill levels. LINKS Executive Director Eddie Patton will lead our mission trip and discuss area low-income housing issues. Meet in the lobby of Jenny Wiley State Park Lodge.
- † Friday, June 6 @ 5:30 p.m.—Dinner at Jenny Wiley State Park May Lodge, Followed by Sunset Boat Ride on Dewey Lake. Back by popular demand! Come join us for a wonderful buffet in the scenic lodge restaurant. Afterward come down to the lake, and board pontoon boats. We will watch the sun set, the moon rise, and deer come down to the shore to drink in the cool of the evening. Meet at the Jenny Wiley State Park Restaurant at 5:30 p.m. Afterward come to the Jenny Wiley Boat Dock at 6:45 p.m.
