DEBBIE TURNER

“C. S. Lewis once said, ‘You never know how much you really believe anything until its truth or falsehood becomes a matter of life and death to you.’ On December 19, 2003, my values were put to such a test and they failed miserably.”

Debbie Turner is an engaging speaker, Bible teacher, and author of two soul-stirring books: Trees Wear Glasses, Don't They, A Call to Faith and Whispered Thunder, Living Within the Sound of God's Voice.

Although raised in a Christian home and saved by grace at the age of twelve, Debbie later abandoned her faith; choosing instead to compete in the race to win worldly approval. As a successful small business owner and community leader, she thought she was winning. When heartbreaking tragedy intervened, she discovered the prize she had been chasing was only an illusion.

No earthly treasure provided an ounce of comfort the night Debbie's beloved, twenty-one year old son chose to commit suicide. Everything she had trusted to save her and protect her family had failed.

When God reached into her broken life and knit her heart together again with His love, He transformed her into a woman completely captured by His grace and launched her into a powerful speaking and writing ministry.

Debbie's enthusiasm and passion for the Lord saturate every part of her life. Whether she is interviewing on Christian radio and television programs or speaking before a church congregation, conference or retreat, her messages deliver truth, encouragement and liberation to those still held captive by the lies of the enemy.

Debbie's transparency, humility, and warmth enable her to connect well with people of all ages, races, and genders. Each message is clearly evangelical and focused upon sharing the wonder of living in intimate fellowship with the Lord.

MY PASSION

“In order to prevail against the challenges of life, we must first establish a spiritual foundation for our families that will remain rock-solid through the fiercest storms.

The best time to determine the strength and validity of our most deeply held convictions is before they are put to such a test.

My life's mission is to boldly ring this warning bell and call others to the fullness and joy of a life completely surrendered to Christ!”

“Life is about balance and boundaries within the framework of God's design. It is about seeing HIS purpose in our pain and HIS order amidst our chaotic existence. Debbie Turner challenges us to keep our heads cocked in a heavenly direction so we can hear these divine directives. God has given her tremendous insight to bless and inspire us all.”

-JAMEY RAGLE, Evangelist and CEO of Life Building Ministries
