How We Pray

Centering Prayer
Direction of Intention

My God, I give you this day. I offer you, now, all of the good that I shall do and I promise to accept, for love of you, all of the difficulty that I shall meet. Help me to conduct myself during this day in a manner pleasing to you. Amen.

Let us know how you pray!

Maybe we'll have another opportunity soon!

November 9 & 16, 2008

Franz Jagerstatter (1907-1943)

In the early hours of March 1, 1943, an Austrian peasant, Franz Jagerstatter, bade farewell to his wife and home and set off by foot for the neighboring town. Upon recognizing him, a neighbor called out in the customary greeting, "Go with God, Franz," to which Franz answered, "You'll see no more of me."

The next day he turned himself in at the induction center in Enns, where he had been ordered to report for military service. After stating his refusal to serve in Hitler's army, he was arrested and imprisoned. He was later tried before a military court in Berlin and sentenced to death. On August 9, 1943, he was beheaded as an "enemy of the state." (All Saints by Robert Ellsberg)
