Treat yourself to a retreat

Throughout the church's long history people have always made retreats.

Sometimes the retreat is a silent weekend, with a few presentations and spiritual direction.

Other times it's a more shared experience, comparing notes and stories with others.

Sometimes the retreat lasts an entire week, or even a whole month.

Other times it's shorter: one day or several evenings in a row.

Whatever the format, content or schedule may be, though, the purpose of the retreat is always the same:

To come closer to the heart of the Lord, to pause and allow Christ to grow within, to intentionally build an inner life in the Spirit.

And the outcome of the retreat is also plain: deeper communion with Christ and an ever deeper turning of one's heart to live with Christ on a daily basis.

The bringing into one's own life, one's relationships and household, the teachings of Jesus of Nazareth: forgiveness generosity hospitality
love for the materially poor
awareness of God's Reign and a heart for justice & peace.

Turning to Christ in this way is natural for us humans.

It's not so much an ideal outside of ourselves as an inner hunger and drive, an integral part of who we are at our very core.

We have, you might say, an inborn hunger for God.

A retreat is a time to allow the divine force to well up within us, to fill us with love and power, to grant us the intuition of presence.

The Live Jesus retreat is led by a parish retreat team and will take place at Holy Infant.

Friday, 5:30pm-10:00pm

Saturday 9:30am-6:30pm

The retreat begins with dinner at Fr. Dave's residence on Friday evening and ends with the 5:30 liturgy on Saturday.
