Olivia Woodford is a professional actress/director and founder of Healing Theatre. She has a BFA in theatre from Boston University and has performed in regional and off Broadway theatres. She has taught theatre in public and private schools, and to people of all ages. There are four Women of the Bible plays she performs at schools and churches. She now lives in Durham, NC.

Olivia Woodford gave inspiring dramatic performances at Holy Infant during Advent and on Mothers' Day Weekend, which were received with great acclaim.

This play brings to life the passion and spirit of Easter through the love, faith and triumph of five women who loved Jesus.

Join these women as they witness and recount the events of Jesus' death and resurrection. These extraordinary events are told with devotion, humor and great feeling.

A young girl sneaks up the stairs to watch The Last Supper; Veronica watches Jesus carry the cross; Mary Magdalene watches Him die on the cross and later is at the tomb when He rises; Mother Mary cleanses and buries Him; and Martha wonders at the events of Pentecost.
