

LECTIONARY GUIDE FOR LECTORS
Revised Common Lectionary – Year C

Sunday	1st Lesson	2nd Lesson	New Testament Lesson	Preacher/Lectors
1/17/10 2 nd Sunday in Ordinary Time	Isaiah 62:1-5 Israel's vindication by God shall shine before the nations like the light of dawn.	1 Corinthians 12:1-11 Paul speaks to the church at Corinth about spiritual gifts.	John 2:1-11 Jesus attends a wedding at Cana and turns water into wine.	Dieter Heinzl 8:30 Wendell Holman 11:00 Linda Bryant Psalm 36:5-10
1/24/10 3 rd Sunday in Ordinary Time	Nehemiah 8:1-3, 5-6, 8-10 An account of the post-exilic leader Ezra reading the law to Israel.	1 Corinthians 12:12-31a offers some of Paul's most important thinking about the Church.	Luke 4:14-21 presents the first full example of Jesus' preaching to the people of Israel.	Mark Thomas 8:30 Tom Crabtree* 11:00 Doug Wilton* Psalm 19
1/31/10 4 th Sunday in Ordinary Time	Jeremiah 1:4-10 The call of Jeremiah; the words of the prophet are to be those the Lord gives him.	1 Corinthians 13:1-13 The gift of love is even greater than that of prophecy or tongues.	Luke 4:21-30 The people of Nazareth move from favor to violence.	Mark Thomas 8:30 Bob Barnes 11:00 Liz Higginbotham* Psalm 71:1-6
2/7/10 5 th Sunday in Ordinary Time	Isaiah 6:1-8 (9-13) The call of Isaiah in the Jerusalem Temple.	1 Corinthians 15:1-11 recalls the essential early Christian teaching about Jesus' death and resurrection, the very foundations of faith.	Luke 5:1-11 reports an elaborate version of Jesus' calling of his first disciples.	Mark Thomas 8:30 Wendell Holman 11:00 Linda Bryant Psalm 138
2/14/10 Transfiguration of the Lord	Jeremiah 17:5-10 reflects the style of wisdom sayings in which the righteous and the wicked are contrasted.	1 Corinthians 15:12-20 treats the theme of God's real involvement in all of human life.	Luke 6:17-26 recalls, even reveals, God's judgment on particular elements of life.	Dieter Heinzl 8:30 Dave Curtis 11:00 Deb Grossman Psalm 1
2/21/10 1 st Sunday in Lent	Deut. 26:1-11 Poised on the brink of the promised land, the Israelites are commanded to offer thanks to God in remembrance of God's salvation and blessings.	Romans 10:8b-13 Paul underlines the epicenter of the life of faith, to have faithful trust in God in the heart, and to be able to say something truthful about it, to confess that faith.	Luke 4:1-13 Jesus begins his life-work in a confrontation with the devil in the wilderness, where the devil offers Jesus a number of tempting alternatives to Jesus' divine mission. Jesus refuses.	Mark Thomas 8:30 Jon Baer 11:00 Connie Anthony Ps. 91:1-2, 9-16
2/28/10 2 nd Sunday in Lent	Genesis 15:1-12, 17-18 In response to Abram's despair over whether God will be faithful to his promise to grant him an heir, God shows Abram the stars and promises anew.	Philippians 3:17-4:1 After boldly instructing the Christians at Philippi to imitate him as an example of Christ, Paul announces his love for them with extraordinarily effusive language.	Luke 13:31-35 Jesus "sets his face toward Jerusalem" as he laments the fate of the city.	Mark Thomas 8:30 Cindy Haines 11:00 Bob Barnes Ps. 27
3/7/10 3 rd Sunday in Lent	Isaiah 55:1-9 The prophet calls Israel to repentance, to change, to return to the covenant with God.	1 Cor. 10:1-13 God is faithful to us, even in our infidelity, says Paul to the Corinthians.	Luke 13:1-9 After a report of a terrible tragedy in which Pontius Pilate has massacred a group of innocent people at the Temple, Jesus tells a parable about a barren fig tree.	Dieter Heinzl 8:30 Linda Bryant 11:00 Scott Walther Ps. 63:1-8
3/14/10 4 th Sunday in Lent DST begins	Joshua 5:9-12	2 Cor. 5:16-21	Luke 15:1-3, 11b-32	Mark Thomas 8:30 Wendell Holman 11:00 Phil Alderson Ps. 32
3/21/10 5 th Sunday in Lent	Isaiah 43:16-21	Phil. 3:4b-14	John 12:1-8	Mark Thomas 8:30 Dave Curtis 11:00 Deb Grossman Ps. 126

If you are unable to serve as scheduled, please make a trade with another Lector and then notify Emily Holman in the Church Office (eholman@laduechapel.org or 314-993-4771 x3109.)

* Our thanks to Chair Liz Higginbotham and Terry Coleman, Tom Crabtree, Lily Strassner, and Doug Wilton, who have served faithfully and will rotate off at the end of January.