

Dear Pastor,

I have heard from many of our pastors around California that we need some kind of curriculum to help inspire men. We have ways to get our men in the mission field but there is little to help them with personal improvement. Our men need to be challenged spiritually through a weekly gathering.

I would like to introduce to you a proven process to inspire and challenge your men: Men's Fraternity. It is written for any size church and I encourage the pastor to be the facilitator. The approximate time each week is one and half hours – 50 minutes with the pastor/facilitator and 40 minutes in small groups.

I have set up three locations for the training in California:

- Southern California, training will take place on March 15th at Palm Baptist Church at 6807 Palm Ave., Riverside, CA 92506-2890, beginning at 9 a.m. and concluding by noon. To register call Cathy at 559-229-9533, ext. 255 or register online at www.csbc.com.
- In Northern California, training will take place on March 29th at Fourteenth Avenue Baptist Church at 6240 14th Ave., Sacramento, CA 95820-3232. To register call Cathy at 559-229-9533, ext. 255 or register online at www.csbc.com.
- In Central California, training will take place May 2nd and 3rd at Trinity Baptist Church, 4890 E Holland Avenue, Fresno, CA 93726-3097. It will be held during the Healthy Church Multiplier. To register call Cathy at 559-229-9533, ext. 255 or register online at www.csbc.com.
