Teaching Children to be Grateful

I just read an article in Parent's Magazine on how to teach your child to be grateful. Since Thanksgiving is around the corner and it is the perfect time for us to talk about being grateful and how to teach it.

This article stated rules to help.

1. Children learn from example. Let them see you showing acts of kindness and be grateful for what is done for you.
2. Using manners every day helps. If you say thank you when receiving something every day . You become thankful.
3. Take part in a Goodwill Project. For example, our fill the pumpkin for Manna Food Bank. Sending clothes or toiletries to Hurricane victims, Toys for Tots at Christmas, or take a name off of the Angel tree at Wal-mart or Target.
4. Let your child shop for others in the family or make gifts.
5. Help them write thank you notes.
6. Practicing saying No.
7. Don't put a lot of emphasis on gifts.
8. Be patient ,this can take a little while.

I am thankful for the opportunity to share in your children's lives. Thank you Ms. Anna Kay
