All Year: REAL LIFE

By Chris Anthony & Julie Dougherty

REAL LIFE will take a fresh look at what the Bible says about discovering REAL LIFE with God, encouraging our husbands, loving our children, taking care of our homes--issues that we face each and every day. If you have never studied the Bible or even if you have, we want to welcome you to the adventure of learning together with other women who are looking to discover REAL LIFE! This is a full year course. Lectures are presented by Chris & Julie, the authors.

Wednesday p.m. East Campus

- For any Bible study background
- Home Prep: approximately 1 hour per week
- Includes weekly teaching lecture

Fall: A Look Within

By Faith Alvis

Take a look within your own heart by examining the lives of Bible women. Faith Taylor shows you how the personality and temperament of Eve, Sarah, Rebekah, Leah, Rachel, Dinah, Miriam, and others influenced their behavior. You'll be surprised at the impact that thoughts, words, and deeds can have---for good or ill---on others now, and for generations to come.

Winter/Spring: Acts

By John Mac Arthur

The book of Acts describes the world's initial response to Christ's Great Commission and the spread of the gospel with details of the first three decades of the church's existence facing great persecution. This study will help you understand the roots of your Christianity and give encouragement as you face the struggles of being a Christian in today's society.

Study Options

You are warmly invited to join one of our Women's Bible Study groups. The studies offered are designed for various levels of Bible Study backgrounds. We trust you will find one that is just right for you!

Fall: A Beautiful Offering

Video Series By Angela Thomas

Based on the Sermon on the Mount, Thomas shares with readers how a shift in her thinking has led her to understand that God does not require perfection, but rather our gracious obedience. She explains how in His eyes, our lives--complete with mistakes, blemishes, and imperfections—are A Beautiful Offering.

Late Fall/ Winter: The Life of David

A study of I & II Samuel by Pat Entz

David is called a "man after God's own heart". He wasn't perfect-in fact, he had to learn many things the "hard way". His life had its share of both victories and defeats, but he learned to be open and honest with God. David's life and writings offer insight into what it means to seek God "whole-heartedly" and teach us the blessings of such a lifestyle. Includes weekly lectures.

Spring: Heaven

Based on the book by Randy Alcorn

Do you ever wonder what heaven will be like? Then join us for a study based on Randy's popular book, "Heaven." Dale McCleskey of Lifeway Press has distilled Randy's 500-page book into an interactive, bible-based format. We will search God's Word for a better understanding of the glorious place we will spend eternity with Him! Several lectures accompany this study.

In-Depth Level

Tuesday a.m. West Campus
Wednesday p.m. East Campus

- Strong Bible study background suggested
- Home Prep: 30-45 minutes, 5 days per week
- Includes various teaching formats

Fall: Following God Series: Romans

Each week's lesson digs deeply into this treasure trove of spiritual jewels called "Romans." As you walk verse by verse through its chapters and become intimately acquainted with all its wealth, you will learn how God's plan of salvation, once reserved for the Jews, was now, at long last, open to the Gentiles in Rome, and upon every corner of the globe. No matter where you are in your Christian walk, you will receive new insights into age-old foundational doctrines regarding sin, repentance, and justification and just how all-encompassing God's grace truly is. A weekly lecture accompanies this study.

Winter/Spring: Esther: It's Tough

Being a Woman by Beth Moore

The OT story of Esther is a profile in courage and a faithful example, with modern day parallels, for today's overloaded and stressed woman. Women will learn strong lessons of faith, providence, and hope to equip them to live courageously "for such a time as this."
