Comments from the women in T. W. I. G. .S.

- "I really liked the mix of study, sharing, fellowship, and especially Beth's lectures."
- "The most beneficial aspect of the study, "was being with women of various ages and with different faith experiences."
- "The highlight of the study "was developing a closer relationship with God through study, caring reminders, and sharing."
- "I have grown in understanding that change of heart results in change of action."
- "I enjoyed the fellowship with other Christian women whose walk with the Lord is in various places."
- "Beth's talks gave (historical) background in an understandable way."
- "This was "absolutely a wonderful study experience!"
- "The study has changed the focus of my motivation. God has grown me in learning to act out of love for Him, and to be a joyful servant."
