October Collections

For October we are collecting items for Operation Christmas Child Shoeboxes. Items needed are: combs, hair bows, bobby pins, small toys, coloring books, tape measures, screw drivers, pliers, bungee cords, and rope.

Estate Gift Received

Roxboro Baptist Church gratefully acknowledges the receipt of a check for $20,000 from the estate of Richard Allen. Richard and his wife, Sue, were active members of our church and loved worshiping and serving the Lord through the life of this family of believers. They were faithful in their living, and through their estate planning have provided a way for that faithfulness to live on!

A bequest to the church is a good way to say:

- I believe in the future of this church.
- I am guided in my stewardship by the belief that all I have is a trust from God.
- I want to continue to be part of this church even after I am no longer here to make my financial contributions.

We are thankful for this generous gift. To God be the glory!

World Hunger Soup Luncheon

The WMU will sponsor a soup luncheon on Sunday, October 14 immediately following the worship service. Donations will go to the NC Baptists Hunger Fund. Come and enjoy delicious soup while you also help provide food for those who are less fortunate!
