Community Thanksgiving Service

Roxboro Presbyterian will host this service on Sunday, November 18, at 7:00 p.m. Rev. Ed Priestaf of Long Memorial will bring the message. Please come and participate as we gather as a community of faith to offer our praise and thanks to God.

New Members

We are delighted to welcome to our fellowship Kirk and Robin Cordy, who joined the church on Sunday, November 4 by statement of faith.

Baptist on Mission Breakfast

Everyone is invited to join us on Sunday, November 18 at 8:30 a.m. in the fellowship hall for fun, fellowship, and a delicious breakfast. Greg Riggs, North Carolina Baptists on Mission site coordinator, will speak on the Disaster Relief efforts taking place following Hurricane Florence.

Mission Opportunity

We have an opportunity to volunteer at the Operation Christmas Child facility on Saturday, December 1 (in Charlotte). You must be age 13 or older to volunteer. You will need money for three meals. We will leave at 7:00 am and return between 10:00 to 11:00 pm. There is a sign-up sheet if interested in going for the first 15 volunteers.

Children's Christmas Tree Workshop

On Sunday, December 2, all K-5 children are invited to join us in the fellowship hall during Sunday School to begin work on the children's Christmas tree. After worship, we invite them to meet back in the fellowship hall for lunch and to finish their ornaments and decorate the tree. Parents may return to pick up their children at 2:30.

Advent Memorials

This year, you can honor and/or memorialize special people in your life by making a contribution that will be used to purchase needed Christmas decorations for the church. A contribution of $15.00 per memorial is suggested. Your name and the names of those you honor or memorialize will be printed in the December 16 bulletin at a special musical worship led by the Chancel Choir.

Please fill out the form below and print your name and the name(s) of those you honor or memorialize exactly as you want them printed in the bulletin. Please return the form with your check to the church by Sunday, December 9.
