Roxboro Baptist Church
sanctuary
Directed by Pepper Choplin

A unique musical journey through the 23rd Psalm, featuring the joint choirs of Roxboro Baptist Church and Long Memorial United Methodist Church along with several other musical friends in the community. We are honored to have Pepper Choplin, the composer of this work, join us on that Sunday morning for worship, and then direct his cantata that afternoon. Admission is free. A love offering will be taken. Mark your calendars, plan to be here for this very special event, and bring a friend!

We will receive the Easter CBF Global Missions Offering during the month of April. 100% of your gift will be used to send CBF field personnel to share the Good News of Jesus Christ around the world.

You Are Invited To Contribute To

THE COGDILL LEGACY FUND

After thirty-six years of service to Campbell University and twenty-four years of leadership to Campbell Divinity School, Dr. Cogdill is retiring in May at the end of this academic year. Roxboro Baptist Church was blessed to have Dr. Cogdill serve as our Interim Pastor, 1998 – 1999. Since we have benefited from his legacy of ministry, we are receiving a special offering during the month of April to contribute to the Michael G. Cogdill Legacy Fund. The fund will support the development of pastoral leadership through Campbell University Divinity School. Checks should be made to Roxboro Baptist Church and designated for "Cogdill." Envelopes are available in the information rack in the Solarium.

Tenebrae Service Wednesday 4/17, 6:15-7:15 Sanctuary

"... and they all lived happily ever after," is a wonderful ending, but not in itself a story. In many ways Easter is the beginning of the story of Christians, but on our Christian calendar it is the end of the stories of Lent and Holy Week. As wonderful an ending as it is, its true beauty can only be understood in the full context of the story. This year we will hold a Tenebrae service in which we experience the story of the end of Jesus' life. We hope that you are able to join us for this evening of solemn worship and reflection as we lay the groundwork for Easter Sunday. This service is for all ages.
