Reflections from Unidiversity:

Everyone needs time to rest. Disconnecting from the outside world is sometimes necessary when connecting with God. During camp we experienced and gained insight about learning the rhythms of grace and taking a break from the stresses of life. Not only did we learn these things, we also got the chance to go on a campus wide scavenger hunt, a dance party, and even an adventure to a rock quarry. One of my favorite experiences during camp was meeting all of the other youth groups. Each of us were learning about the rhythms of grace and how to work the many lessons that we were taught into our lives. Overall I had a great time at camp, it taught me many valuable lessons that I can not only apply to my life but help others to focus on resting and taking time out of our days to focus more on God. Mary Grayson Day, Sophomore

Unidiversity was a fun camp experience that I will remember forever. It was a great chance to meet new friends and have fun experiences. It is a yearly event that I would attend every year because of the way it combines God with what you like doing, whether it was fun or play. It was a great experience to share with the people I shared it with and I would gladly do it again, but this time I would advise even more people to come because it is a personalized experience where you get to do what you like and you will also experience God in many of the things you do. Jed Hill, Sophomore

This was my last trip with the youth group (that is, as a youth.) I am so glad I got to go somewhere I have always wanted to go with the youth group, Dollywood! While that was fun of course, the time we spent at camp was very meaningful to me, being that I may not see these wonderful people for a month or two. It was funny to see how this year's theme seemed to fit me personally, and how the discussion of the week on the unforced rhythms of grace were not just lessons to be taught, but for me were instructions for the next few years. I, like Dollywood's motto stated, loved every moment, and I'll treasure my time at camp this year forever. Zach Bradsher, Senior

My first time as a chaperone was certainly one to remember. Going to Unidiversity was a huge blessing that God placed in my path. I was a Bible study leader for the week with some awesome middle schoolers. Watching them transform over the week into more mature young adults was beautiful. Unidiversity was not only a learning experience for the youth, but also for the adults. We learned the importance of rest when things are busy, unity in community, and many other things that I don't see others focusing on. It was certainly an eye opener for me and I will continue to dwell on these ideas. I will definitely be begging to chaperone again as I love watching the kids in our church community grow and go in Jesus' name. Katie Ann Oakley, Chaperone

“Growing Young” Workshop

Would you like to see our church reach younger generations and grow spiritually? If you are passionate about outreach to our community and seeing growth at RBC, then please join JD at CBFNC's “Growing Young” conference on August 18. This conference is open to anyone who wants to see RBC grow, but is not sure where to start. First Baptist, Mocksville is hosting the conference. We will leave RBC at 7:00 a.m. and return at 4:30 p.m. “Growing Young” features ground breaking research on churches like ours experiencing this type of numerical and spiritual growth, and it is an opportunity you don't want to miss! Last day to sign-up is Thursday, August 9. Please contact JD to sign up.
