Ann Downing Concert

On Saturday, February 7 at 6:30 pm in the sanctuary, Ann Downing will be in concert. Everyone is invited to attend and bring a friend.

About Ann

More than likely you've seen Ann Downing as a regular on the popular Gaither Homecoming Video series. However the majority of her time is spent maintaining a full schedule of church concerts and speaking engagements each weekend traveling throughout the United States and Canada.

Apart from her affiliation with the Gaither Homecoming Friends, Ann's own versatile music style appeals to a wide range of musical tastes and age groups, not just the Gaither Video fans. While she is a commissioned song evangelist in the Church of the Nazarene, Ann enjoys sharing her music and ministry with a wide variety of denominations.

Ann's unique presentation style is also appealing in that she comes down from the platform to communicate with the audience on a very personal level. Her spontaneous, off-the-cuff delivery gives the feeling of a conversational visit rather than a rigid formal program.

Ann has been lauded with various awards and accolades throughout her gospel music career spanning over forty years. However, she's quick to tell you that she's like you in many ways. Fading success? She's been there! Crumbling marriage or financial ruin? She's been there! Lost a spouse or experienced a devastating trauma in your family? Ann's walked in your shoes!

Opening Group

Opening the concert for Ann is the Hinshaw Family from Durham, NC. The Hinshaw Family is made up of father and mother, Floyd and Connie and their 3 adult daughters, Debbie, Sandy and Robin. They primarily sing Southern Gospel style music.
