

The Celebration of Worship

Twenty-fourth Sunday after Pentecost November 4, 2018
All Saints Sunday

Prelude "I Will Rise"

*There's a peace I've come to know though my heart and flesh may fail
There's an anchor for my soul; I can say "It is well"
Jesus has overcome, and the grave is overwhelmed
The victory is won, He is risen from the dead
And I will rise when He calls my name; no more sorrow, no more pain
I will rise on eagles' wings, before my God fall on my knees*

Invocation Larry King

Welcome DuPre Sanders

Call to Remembrance

Pastor: For the bounteous goodness that continues to be ours in life, remember to give thanks to God, the Provider.

People: We will remember and give thanks.

Pastor: For the love that we know in Christ our Lord, which manifests itself in and through our brothers and sisters of this church family, remember to give thanks to God, the Source of all true love.

People: We will remember and give thanks.

Pastor: For those persons of faith who have touched our lives in their own unique way and who have entered the doorway of life everlasting, remember to give thanks to the God who gives us new life now and forever.

People: We will remember and give thanks.

Pastor: Especially remember those persons of our church family who have died in the last year.

Postlude

The joy and freedom found in Jesus Christ and proclaimed by this body of believers can be yours today if you have never given your life to Christ. By confessing with your mouth "Jesus is Lord," and believing in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved (Romans 10:9). For God so loved the world that He gave His one and only Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life (John 3:16).

What to pray?

Dear Lord Jesus,
I know I am a sinner and have been separated from You. I need Your forgiveness. I want to turn from my sinfulness because I believe that You died for my sins. I now invite You to come into my heart and life. I want to trust You as Savior and follow You as Lord, in the fellowship of Your church. In Jesus' name I pray. Amen.
