From the Canon Administrator

The Rev. Canon Tim Sexton

I am writing this from the ACS Technologies annual meeting in Orlando, Florida. We are half way through with our meeting. For those of you who may not know, ACS is the provider of our database, financial, and web site programs. The annual meeting is a time to receive training in these areas and be introduced to new products and upgrades. This is the 19th year that ACS has held its annual meeting, my first year and Linda Verdugo's 3rd year to attend.

Linda and I are both finding this to be a good time of learning how to better use what we have and fixing some of the problem areas that we have encountered with the various aspects of the programs. We have, from here, been able to upgrade to the latest version and have begun to develop a plan for making better use of what we have.

In a day and a half I have taken classes on using the ACS Financial package including general ledger and contributions reports. These will help us to have better financial reports and better reports for everyone that gives to St. Andrew's. I have also taken classes on better record keeping and how that can improve our communications with visitors and regulars at St. Andrew's. Yes, it has been a very full time. For the rest of today

Reminder: This is a reminder to all of you who pledge support to the Cathedral. Please make sure your pledges are current before you go away on Vacation! The Finance Committee is concerned that pledges received are currently about 20% below the anticipated amount. Your cooperation is appreciated. Thank you.

and tomorrow I will focus on the new Episcopal Parochial Report, small groups, volunteers, and more on report designs.

Linda has been busy as well working with tech support, people reports, and our web site. She will join me tomorrow with the Parochial Report presentation and Access, which is a new-to-us part of the program that will allow parishioners direct access to their information – more to come from this, but we are excited about the possibilities.

In an effort to keep some balance in life, Barbara and I did come a couple of days early to adjust to the time change and to play. When the conference is over we are going to my sister's house for the weekend. She lives nearby in Clermont.

Over the summer I anticipate Linda and I will continue to work on implementing all that we are learning. While it may not affect you directly, immediately, I think we have valuable tools that will enhance and support the ministries and ministers (you) of St. Andrew's.

Cathedral Summer Movie Nights!

Chitty Chitty Bang Bang

145 minutes, 1968

This kiddie-car caper is solid family fare. It retains a quaint charm while some of the songs--including the title tune--are quite hummable. A huge plus is Dick Van Dyke, who is extremely appealing as an eccentric inventor around the turn of the century. With nimble fingers and a unique way of looking at the world, he invents for his children a magic car that floats and flies. Or does he? The special effects are tame by today's standards but its enthusiasm charms.

Mary Poppins

139 minutes, 1964

There is only one word that comes close to accurately describing the enchanting Mary Poppins, and that term was coined by the movie itself: supercalifragilisticexpialidocious! Disney's pioneering mixture of live action and animation (based on the books by P.L. Travers) still holds kids spellbound. Julie Andrews won an Oscar as the world's most magically idealized nanny ("practically perfect in every way," and complete with lighter-than-air umbrella), and Dick Van Dyke is her clownishly charming beau, Bert the chimney sweep. The songs are also terrific, ranging from bright and cheery ("A Spoonful of Sugar") to dark and cheery (the Oscar-winning "Chim-Chim Cheree") to touchingly melancholy ("Feed the Birds"). Many consider Mary Poppins to be the crowning achievement of Walt Disney's career--and it was the only one of his features to be nominated for a best picture Academy Award until Beauty and the Beast in 1991.

Sound of Music

174 minutes, 1965

Maria had longed to be a nun since she was a young girl, yet when she became old enough discovered that it wasn't at all what she thought. Often in trouble and doing the wrong things, Maria is sent from the Austrian convent to the house of a retired naval captain, named Captain Von Trapp, to care for his children. Von Trapp was widowed several years before and was left to care for seven 'rowdy' children. The children have run off countless governesses. Maria soon learns that all these children need is a little love to change their attitudes. Maria teaches the children to sing, and through her, music is brought back into the hearts and home of the Von Trapp family. Unknowingly, Maria and Captain Von Trapp are falling helplessly in love, except there are two problems, the Captain is engaged, and Maria is a postulant!

Calling all bakers

The St. Andrew's Pie Shop will be operational during the June 23rd and 24th Rummage Sale as it has been for the last two years. If you like to bake pies, please sign up at the Welcome Table after Church. If you aren't able to sign up that way, you may leave a message for Alice Herring at 235-2745 and she will contact you with details. Our intention is to sell pie slices, for consumption on the grounds. However if people want to purchase a whole pie they may do so. If you don't want your pie pan to disappear you should bring the pie in a foil plate. Remember, home made pie is a real treat, we ask that you not purchase pre-made pies or crusts. †
