

Leisure

I shall attend to my little errands of love
early this year
That the brief days before Christmas may be unhampered and clear

Of the fever of hurry ~ the breathless rushing
I have known in the past
Shall not possess me. I shall be calm in my soul
And ready at last

For Christmas: "The Mass of Christ" I shall kneel
And call out His name;
I shall take time to watch the beautiful light
Of a candle's flame;

I shall have leisure ~ I shall go out alone
From my roof and my door;
I shall not miss the silver silence of stars
As I have before

And oh, perhaps if I stand there very still
And very long
I shall hear what the clamor of living has kept from me: The Angels' Song!

Thank you

Thank you Daughters of the Holy Cross for a wonderful year! I am so grateful to the Executive Committee, Nancy Holt, Mary Boyd, Susan White, Scotty Frantz and Mopsy Crawford. I am also grateful to our Advisors to the Board, Jeanne Kean and Nancy Dunbar. Thank you Chapter and Committee Chairs for all of your hard work!

The poem on the left of this page was provided to me by Margot High, a fellow Trinity Daughter. A year ago, I expressed to her my desire to keep my mind and my heart focused on the true meaning of Christmas. She followed that conversation with this wonderful poem which I have held onto all year waiting for the opportunity to share with you.

Margot believes this poem was originally provided to the Daughters by Miss Roberta Aldrich. I encourage you to have "leisure" during Advent as we await the birth of our King.

God's Peace, Janie

Join Us for the Daughters' Last General Meeting in 2007

Plan now to attend the Daughters of the Holy Cross general meeting on Monday, December 3 from 11:30 – 1:00 in Satterlee Hall. We are delighted to welcome Joye Q. Cantrell, Canon for Outreach and Adult Education, as our speaker. Joye's presentation is entitled, "You've Come A Long Way Baby!"

Joye was born in Charleston and graduated from Ashley Hall, Converse College and the University of South Carolina's College of Library Science. After attending Bexley Hall Seminary in Rochester, New York, Joye was ordained in 1992. Her first church was in the Diocese of Western New York in Stafford. Prior to joining the clergy staff at Trinity, Joye served as the rector of All Saints in Clinton, South Carolina.

Joye was married right after college to W. Paul Cantrell, who died in a plane crash on Dec. 6th, 1984. Joye and Paul have two children. Margaret is an attorney and works for Congressman James Clyburn in the office of the Majority Whip of the U.S. House of Representatives. Paul is a student at Le Cordon Bleu cooking school in Miami. Paul is engaged to be married to a wonderful girl he met while attending Presbyterian College.

The Daughters are blessed to have Joye on staff at Trinity. We are delighted she will be with us to share her thoughts and experiences.

At our December meeting, the 2008 Executive Committee will be recognized. Officers include Nancy Holt, President; Susan Johnston, President-Elect; Scotty Frantz, Treasurer; Wanda Spong, Treasurer-Elect and Lucile Boyle, Secretary. In addition the budget for 2008 will be presented for approval.

A buffet lunch will be served at 11:45. Parking meters on Senate Street will be bagged for your use. Childcare is available by contacting Jean White in the Trinity Learning Center at 254-5819. We look forward to seeing you there!

2007 Bazaar ~ A Great Day!

Trinity Cathedral's city block was full of life on Saturday, November 3, 2007. The 59th Annual Bazaar was a great success. Months of preparation and hard work paid off as funds were raised to support our five large grant recipients, Trinity's standing missions, Episcopal Church Women ministries and our small grants fund. Our large grant recipients for 2007 are Children's Garden, Cooperative Ministry, St. Lawrence Place, Salvation Army Kids 2 Kamp and Young Life.

Children's Garden provides quality childcare for young children ages 6 weeks to 5 years old. Clients include children and their families who are homeless, needy, in crisis, in transition and lacking a support system.

The Cooperative Ministry provides improved quality of services to an increased number of clients needing clothing, housing, employment information, supplies to maintain and obtain employment, transportation, and designated financial assistance for rent and utilities.

St. Lawrence Place provides services and transitional housing for homeless families seeking self-sufficiency and permanent housing. St. Lawrence Place provides mandatory programs to target the primary areas that contribute to homelessness.

Salvation Army Kids 2 Kamp provides an opportunity for the poorest of Columbia's children to have a life changing experience. The purpose of the camp is to serve the physical, social and spiritual needs of campers through careful staff selection and well-planned programs, while maintaining the highest health and safety standards.

Young Life seeks to introduce high school and middle school students to Christ and help them grow in their faith. The leaders share their love of Jesus Christ and provide positive role models for the adolescents.

The Bazaar's Standing Missions are Finlay House, Heathwood Hall Rural Missions, St. Lawrence Place and Still Hopes. Each year ECW of the Upper Diocese supports a Diocesan, National and World Mission project. 10% of Bazaar proceeds will be withheld to respond to small grant requests for 2008. In 2007 small grants included funding for books for the students of W.A. Perry, emergency assistance for two families in Columbia, partial funding for a power point projector for a missionary in Nigeria and funds to support the Christmas bags for the homeless. Thank you Trinity family for your support of the Bazaar and the work it seeks to accomplish in the community!

United Thank Offering Up-date

Who did your United Thank Offerings help this past year in South Carolina?

In 2007, UTO gave $15,000 to St. Andrew's Episcopal Church in Charleston to purchase a vehicle to transport low to moderate income youth to the Community Youth Summer Initiative. In Greenville, St. Francis Episcopal Church received $15,000 to pay the salary for a coordinator in an after-school program that helps Hispanic students and their families learn English.

The United Thank Offering In-gathering in September raised over $1,800 from members of Trinity Cathedral. You are invited to participate in this fulfilling practice of daily prayers, offerings, and awareness of the abundance of God's blessings. The UTO Blue boxes are available year round in the Cathedral breezeway for your daily offerings of thanks. Your contributions will be used to support and strengthen the mission and ministry of the Church in South Carolina and throughout the world. The next UTO In-gathering will be in the Spring of 2008.

The Sara Hempley Scholarship Fund

In 1999, Sara Justice Hempley published a book called "The Windows of Trinity Episcopal Cathedral." This beautiful, full-color book includes pictures and information about each window's symbolism, its age, and the artist.

Understanding the importance and value of this book, the Daughters of the Holy Cross agreed to underwrite the book's printing. Mrs. Hempley then generously donated all proceeds from the sale of the book to the mission and outreach of the Daughters. These proceeds now fund the Sara Hempley Scholarship fund which annually provides a gift of $500 to a non-traditional student obtaining a degree from a technical, two, or four year college.

Applications may be submitted any time during the year. For further information visit the Central Carolina Community Foundation website which can be found by visiting <http://www.yourfoundation.org/scholarships/sarahempley.aspx>.
