

Trinity Episcopal Cathedral

Denomination:	~Episcopal Church USA, part of the worldwide Anglican Communion
History:	~For nearly two centuries Trinity Cathedral has played a key role in the Episcopal Church in South Carolina and in the life of the City of Columbia and the State of South Carolina. From our beginning in 1812 as a small mission outpost in the new state capital we have grown to a thriving parish with more than 4,200 baptized members.
Location:	~1100 Sumter Street Columbia, SC 29201 www.trinitysc.org
Diocese:	~The Cathedral is the seat of the Episcopal Diocese of Upper South Carolina, headed by the Right Rev. Dorsey F. Henderson? ~Our Diocese is made up of 64 churches in 22 counties.
Media Contact:	~Allison Lee, Director of Communications? ~The Very Rev. Dr. Philip C. Linder, Dean
Phone/Contact:	~803-771-7300 or lee@trinitysc.org
Congregation:	~We are a downtown church serving the Columbia community. We have a growing congregation of approximately 4,200 members.????
Services:	~Sunday Worship in the Cathedral: 7:45 a.m. Holy Eucharist, Rite I; 9:00 a.m. Holy Eucharist, Rite II; 11:30 a.m. Holy Eucharist, Rite I ~Sunday Worship in Keenan Chapel: 11:30 a.m. Holy Eucharist, Rite II; 6:00 p.m. Holy Eucharist, Rite II ~Weekday Worship in Keenan Chapel: Morning Prayer: Monday - Friday at 8:45 a.m.; Holy Eucharist: Monday 5:15 p.m., Rite I; Tuesday and Friday: 12:15 p.m. Rite II; Wednesday 7:30 a.m. Rite II; Thursday 12:15 p.m. Rite II and Healing Service?
Programs:	~The Cathedral Shoppe ~The Trinity Learning Center ~Trinity Housing Corporation/St. Lawrence Place ~Sunday Morning Homeless Breakfast ~A wide variety of music programs and concerts, including Wednesdays at Trinity
Buildings:	~Designated a National Historic Landmark ~Designed by ~Decorated Style: historic gothic architecture, built in 1846, and the parish house, built in 1924. ~The Trinity Center of Mission and Ministry, opened in 2006, mirrors the great design of the Cathedral. Architects: Woodrum and Fant, along with Kahn construction, and LCK construction. ~Attached to the Cathedral are the diocesan offices and program space.