Responding to the Word

*HYMN 189 O Wondrous Sight, O Vision Fair DEO GRACIAS

OFFERING

Please pass the fellowship register to the end of the pew and back at this time.

(8:30) Open My Heart J.S. Bach
Geneva Choir; Deb Cameron, soprano

(11:00) Dazzling as the Sun Gwenyth Walker
Chancel Choir

Dazzling as the sun, the face of Jesus on the mountain, like the face of Moses coming down from Sinai, ready, strong to lead his people out of bondage into freedom, to the promised land. Transfigured for disciples' eyes, God's servant who would suffer as Isaiah prophesied. Revealed in garments glistening white, the glorious Son of Man whom Daniel had foretold. Then the cloud of presence, then the voice of witness: "this is my beloved Son on whom my favor rests. Listen to him." Hear him! Gazing on the Lord by radiant light transfigured, see the pattern of our lives: cross embraced to Easter splendor. Claim the Gospel vision wondrous: we are God's beloved ones. Claim the transformation promised: destiny of glory!

*DOXOLOGY

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Christ, all people here below;
Praise Holy Spirit evermore;
Praise Triune God, whom we adore. Amen.

Hymn 607

This majestic tune is also known as the Agincourt Song because it was sung after the battle of Agincourt in 1415. The version played as today's postlude adds trumpet fanfares. The tune appears in our hymnbook twice more; you can look it up in the Index of Tunes.

Dazzling as the Sun focuses on the Biblical story of Transfiguration, with a shimmering accompaniment and dramatic setting of the text with its images of light and glory. The music reaches a climax with "This is my beloved Son," combined with the word "Glory."

Davidson College Presbyterian Church is an Earth Care and Stephen Ministry congregation on the corner of campus and community. This congregation celebrates partnerships in Christ with the Sigona Presbyterian Church in Kikuyu, Kenya, and the Kilambe communities in Jinotega, Nicaragua and Blythe Elementary School in Huntersville, NC. Together we seek to grow in witnessing to Christ in a complex world and to learn more about how to respond as disciples to the great needs of the world.
