JOURNEY FUND Many people point to participating in mission trips, attending camp, and going to conferences such as the Montreat Youth Conference, the Massanetta Middle School Conference, and the Montreat Worship and Music Conference as pivotal in their faith journeys. DCPC wants to make it possible for EVERYONE to participate in these powerful experiences and thus the Session established the Journey Fund several years ago to provide scholarship assistance for mission trips, camps, and conferences. The Journey Fund receives no funds from the budget and thus is entirely dependent upon contributions over and above your pledges. Your contribution will be gladly accepted through the DCPC website or by indicating Journey Fund on the memo line of your check.

A Church for All Seasons

To kick off our 2018 Stewardship Campaign we are distributing white dogwood seedlings at today's worship services. This year's theme is "A Church for All Seasons," and our symbol, or logo, is the tree. If you don't already have a seedling, be sure to receive yours as you leave worship. As members of the DCPC family, we are committed to financial stewardship in support of God's work, and as an Earth Care Congregation, we are committed to the stewardship of creation and our world. What better way to express all our areas of stewardship than the tree, firmly rooted in God's good earth, flourishing and regenerating throughout all the seasons of the year. To keep you mindful of our commitment to stewardship throughout the year, please plant the seedling in your yard or in a pot for your deck or patio. Watch the seedling as it grows and changes in the different seasons, and as you care for and nurture your tree, be reminded that DCPC requires your care and attention in order for it to thrive. Most importantly, be reminded that our church is there to support and love you through both good and difficult times, through the seasons of your life. We urge you to give prayerful consideration of your financial commitment to support the church in its mission and ministry.
