Responding to the Word

*HYMN 402

How Lovely, Lord

MERLE'S TUNE

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE AND LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Pulpits are essentially a medieval invention. Abbot Samson of Bury St. Edmunds had one made in the late twelfth century so that he could preach to the people in English, and thirteenth and fourteenth century examples still exist in Italy. In the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries it became fashionable in the Church of Scotland to make the pulpit the focal point of the interior, often placing it against the wall opposite the entrance.

The Revised Common Lectionary readings for the time after Pentecost cover large sections of the biblical story—major narratives of the Hebrew scriptures; the writings of the apostles to the earliest Christian communities; and the Gospel accounts of Jesus’ ministry of teaching, healing, feeding, and welcoming.

Clear our minds from clutter, that we may discern what is right and walk in your ways.

Davidson College Presbyterian Church is an Earth Care and Stephen Ministry congregation on the corner of campus and community. This congregation celebrates partnerships in Christ with the Sigona Presbyterian Church in Kikuyu, Kenya, and the Kilambe communities in Jinotega, Nicaragua and Blythe Elementary School in Huntersville, NC. Together we seek to grow in witnessing to Christ in a complex world and to learn more about how to respond as disciples to the great needs of the world.
