Saturday Alternative Worship

Each Saturday in Lent, come worship God in a casual and more relaxed manner in Lingle Chapel at 5 p.m. All the usual elements of worship are incorporated and the Scripture lessons are the same as on Sunday morning but there is a different feel. There are no paper bulletins; everything is on the screen. Sunday Union leads the music. There is communion each week and the preacher last Saturday wore jeans. This is a wonderful worship alternative for the whole family. O come, let us worship God together!

DATE NIGHT WITH FREE BABYSITTING!

The Sampler Supper Restaurant Edition is this Saturday night following Saturday worship. Childcare will be provided at the church. While the adults enjoy dinner at one of three area restaurants, Brickhouse, Sabi, or Campania, the children will feast on pizza for $3/child. Just call the church office to make your reservations. IF you have a preference, indicate which of the three restaurants you would like to go to. You can also request that you are put with a particular person or couple. If you have been a new member sponsor, this is a great opportunity to ask them to attend with you. PLEASE RSVP by Thursday at NOON to Patti in the church office ploner@dcpc.org 704-892-5641 so we can make sure we have enough sitters and tables reserved at the restaurants.

ROOM IN THE INN March 6 & 7

It is our turn for Room at the Inn again and the time has slipped up. Our goal is to engage as many new members in this as possible as a way of introducing this ministry to them. As such, phone calls are being made to all the Nesters who have joined in the past year. We do need "veterans" involved in each aspect: set up, dinner, evening activities, sleep over, breakfast, breakdown. If you would be willing to help our new members in any of these areas, please e-mail Julie ASAP jhill@dcpc.org. You will be contacted by the end of the week with details. Also, if you are available to drive the bus to pick up or drop off our guests, please let Julie know that as well.

Cade Galombeck

Marnie Howiler, good report from her latest scan!

Friends,

I know many of you are anxious to hear news from Cade Galombeck, Nyree and Andy's 21 month old son who has been diagnosed with Stage IV Neuroblastoma. I am hopeful that soon a Caring Bridges will be set up. Until that time they have given me permission to share with you what I know. Unfortunately I have a cold and have not been able to see them since Saturday so the latest info I have is from quick voice messages.

Friday and Saturday, Cade was up, smiling and playing with toys some. His need for pain medication was way down. As of yesterday, the doctors were hoping Cade would be able to come home by the end of the week. He has met other milestones for being able to come home and now just needs to be fever free for 48 hours.

Nyree and Andy continue to appreciate your e-mails, voicemails, and cards but please NO VISITORS!

Each Wednesday at 9:30, you are invited to gather in the parlor for a brief time of prayer for Cade. A simple liturgy will be available should you want to use it. I also remind you that there is intercessory prayer in the chapel each Wednesday from 11:30 am to noon, and Sundays from 10:40 – 10:50 a.m., just prior to 11 am worship.

Feel free to call me if you have question or concerns or just need to talk. Let's surround Cade and his whole family with our prayers.

Grace & peace,

Julie
