

Please consider volunteering to help our neighbors in the coming months.

We will be adding Thursday evenings to our Room In the Inn (RITI) Sessions at the DCPC Congregation House this year. WE NEED YOUR HELP. In this email you will find link to four different sign up tabs, one for each of the months of the RITI season.

Most importantly, our efforts begin THIS Thursday - December 13th.

As those of you who have volunteered in the past are aware, our volunteer opportunities range from: driving the bus, to setting up our beds, cooking dinner or breakfast, hosting our guests for the evening, spending the night, and even washing laundry. Individually, these tasks are relatively simple. However, it literally takes a village to make it all work.

This is a partnership with Davidson College students who will take on a variety of responsibilities once they return from their winter break.

The Davidson faith community has been incredibly supportive of our efforts to house our homeless neighbors in the past, and we hope that we will see that same response to this request for help.

Please consider signing up for SEVERAL volunteer opportunities over the next 4 months. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Thank you for your support in the past, and thank you in advance for supporting this new, expanded season of RITI.

Sincerely,

Jane Campbell
