

Living our Faith in the Present Tense

In our Community • In our Worship • In our World

LIVE YOUR FAITH IN OUR COMMUNITY

Children of a homeless family sleep on a shelter floor.
A troubled soul needs a special message of caring.
A minister offers hope where eyes show only tears.
A Muslim woman needs a friend in a strange land.

You can build a house.
You can give a hug.
You can make hope a reality.
You can be that friend.

LIVE YOUR FAITH IN OUR WORSHIP

A new life comes into the world.
A couple celebrates their 50th wedding anniversary.
We receive communion.
We pass the candle at our Christmas Eve service.

You can make a promise at baptism.
You can share their happiness.
You can let God know your heart.
You can share the light of Jesus' birth.

LIVE YOUR FAITH IN OUR WORLD

A doctor gives medicine to a child in India.
A family raises sheep for producing wool.

Carlos Cardenas helps with disaster-relief in Nicaragua.
Many without food yesterday have it today.

Your contribution helps him heal.
Your dollars help them achieve self-sustenance.
Your hands can reach across oceans.

You gave up a lunch to help a family buy dinner
