Michael Dixon will discuss the role that faith plays in our lives as we move from the church sanctuary to the secular world.

Michael Dixon enjoys an international broadcast career and is well known to Phoenix audiences through a variety of media outlets. He is the recipient of the prestigious International Communication and Leadership Award given by Toastmasters. He anchored live PBS television broadcasts of "Opera-in-the-Park," from San Francisco with Placido Domingo, and hosted several television specials with the San Francisco Symphony. He has resided in the Valley since 1973.

Michael earned an M.A. and D. Min. from the University of San Francisco Graduate Theological Union.

The public is invited.
