NCPG hosts child safety fair

The North Central Parenting Group (NCPG) Child Safety Fair will be held at the Church of the Beatitudes, 555 W. Glendale Ave., on Wednesday, Sept. 10 from 9-10:30 a.m. Admission is free!

Parenting classes will follow the fair from 10:30-11:30 a.m. for all NCPG members. Guests are welcome to attend one class at no charge. Membership sign up will be available to all guests.

The Child Safety Fair is aimed at educating parents on health and safety issues related to personal security, nutrition, fire safety and lifesaving techniques. The latest in child safety and health information will be presented. There also will be certified personnel performing car seat checks to see if they are properly installed.

NCPG is a non-denominational, nonprofit organization to educate and support parents of young children and encourage friendships among NCPG families. The group offers bi-weekly interactive parenting classes led by professional instructors in the field of child development.
