

'Compelling Vision' Meetings

Guiding Statement: "Confessing Jesus Christ as Teacher, Redeemer, and Lord, we desire to serve Him by proclaiming, professing, and walking in His way together bringing His peace to our broken world. Join us in reclaiming a new passion for Christ and helping set a course for our future as the Church of the Brethren serving Him in our communities and in the world!"

The Shenandoah District is hosting a series of sessions to participate in and help shape the 'Compelling Vision' being formulated for the Church of the Brethren. Districts across the brotherhood are holding similar gatherings, hearing from Brethren what they envision for the Church of the Brethren of the future.

The Rev. Kevin Daggett, pastor of the Dayton Church of the Brethren and a member of the Compelling Vision Process Team, is leading the sessions. All of the sessions are on Sunday afternoons, 3-5 p.m.

Jan. 20 - Pleasant Valley (91 Valley Church Road, Weyers Cave)
Feb. 3 - Cedar Grove (616 Cedar Grove Road, Ruckersville)
Feb. 17 - Bridgewater Retirement Community's multi-purpose room on the third floor of the Huffman Healthcare Center (302 N. Second Street, Bridgewater)
Feb. 24 - New Hope (12768 Frost Road, Dunmore, W.Va.)
Mar. 3 - Wakemans Grove (668 Wakemans Grove Rd., Edinburg)

Attendance is not restricted to those in each section. Instead, you are encouraged to choose a session (or more than one) that is conveniently located and aligns with your schedule.

For more information, visit the Church of the Brethren's webpage at:

<http://www.brethren.org/ac/compelling-vision.html>

"Where there is no vision,
the people perish" (Prov. 29:18a KJV)

'Compelling Vision' Meetings

Guiding Statement: "Confessing Jesus Christ as Teacher, Redeemer, and Lord, we desire to serve Him by proclaiming, professing, and walking in His way together bringing His peace to our broken world. Join us in reclaiming a new passion for Christ and helping set a course for our future as the Church of the Brethren serving Him in our communities and in the world!"

The Shenandoah District is hosting a series of sessions to participate in and help shape the 'Compelling Vision' being formulated for the Church of the Brethren. Districts across the brotherhood are holding similar gatherings, hearing from Brethren what they envision for the Church of the Brethren of the future.

The Rev. Kevin Daggett, pastor of the Dayton Church of the Brethren and a member of the Compelling Vision Process Team, is leading the sessions. All of the sessions are on Sunday afternoons, 3-5 p.m.

Jan. 20 - Pleasant Valley (91 Valley Church Road, Weyers Cave)
Feb. 3 - Cedar Grove (616 Cedar Grove Road, Ruckersville)
Feb. 17 - Bridgewater Retirement Community's multi-purpose room on the third floor of the Huffman Healthcare Center (302 N. Second Street, Bridgewater)
Feb. 24 - New Hope (12768 Frost Road, Dunmore, W.Va.)
Mar. 3 - Wakemans Grove (668 Wakemans Grove Rd, Edinburg)

Attendance is not restricted to those in each section. Instead, you are encouraged to choose a session (or more than one) that is conveniently located and aligns with your schedule.

For more information, visit the Church of the Brethren's webpage at:

<http://www.brethren.org/ac/compelling-vision.html>

"Where there is no vision,
the people perish" (Prov. 29:18a KJV)

Visual model

As we embark on this journey together, it is our prayer that: our relationships with one another will be strengthened and deepened, transcending points of disagreement; we will be able to celebrate the ongoing presence and activity of God's Spirit at work among us; we will be open to what God is calling us to do together as Christ's disciples; the vision ultimately articulated will lay claim to our hearts and our minds, our imaginations and our spirits, shaping our identity and inspiring our ministry at the congregational level, the district level, and the denominational level; and we will wholeheartedly embrace the challenge set before us by that vision, affirming contextual creativity as we actively seek to embody that vision.

(Excerpted from www.brethren.org/ac/compelling-vision.html)

Visual model

As we embark on this journey together, it is our prayer that: our relationships with one another will be strengthened and deepened, transcending points of disagreement; we will be able to celebrate the ongoing presence and activity of God's Spirit at work among us; we will be open to what God is calling us to do together as Christ's disciples; the vision ultimately articulated will lay claim to our hearts and our minds, our imaginations and our spirits, shaping our identity and inspiring our ministry at the congregational level, the district level, and the denominational level; and we will wholeheartedly embrace the challenge set before us by that vision, affirming contextual creativity as we actively seek to embody that vision.

(Excerpted from www.brethren.org/ac/compelling-vision.html)