

What is your vision for the church?
Where do we go from here?
Join the conversations!

The Shenandoah District has been hosting a series of sessions to participate in and help shape the Compelling Vision being formulated for the Church of the Brethren. The Rev. Kevin Daggett, a member of the Compelling Vision Process Team, leads the sessions. All are on Sunday afternoons, 3-5 p.m.

Choose a conveniently-located session that fits your schedule:

- ◆ Feb. 24: New Hope (12768 Frost Road, Dunmore, W.Va.)
- ◆ Mar. 3: Wakemans Grove (668 Wakemans Grove Rd., Edinburg, Va.)

The denomination's web site (www.brethren.org) explains the importance of these meetings being held across the brotherhood:

“We are committed to engaging as many people as possible in the process, providing opportunities for individuals to give voice to their passions and concerns, listen to one another, and work together to identify common threads and themes that might point to a shared and compelling vision.

“As we embark on this journey together, it is our prayer that: our relationships with one another will be strengthened and deepened, transcending points of disagreement; we will be able to celebrate the ongoing presence and activity of God's Spirit at work among us; we will be open to what God is calling us to do together as Christ's disciples; the vision ultimately articulated will lay claim to our hearts and our minds, our imaginations and our spirits, shaping our identity and inspiring our ministry at the congregational level, the district level, and the denominational level; and we will wholeheartedly embrace the challenge set before us by that vision, affirming contextual creativity as we actively seek to embody that vision.”

Annual Conference will explore the results from these meetings in July. Please pray for wisdom, grace and unity for all these discussions.

What is your vision for the church?
Where do we go from here?
Join the conversations!

The Shenandoah District has been hosting a series of sessions to participate in and help shape the Compelling Vision being formulated for the Church of the Brethren. The Rev. Kevin Daggett, a member of the Compelling Vision Process Team, leads the sessions. All are on Sunday afternoons, 3-5 p.m.

Choose a conveniently-located session that fits your schedule:

- ◆ Feb. 24: New Hope (12768 Frost Road, Dunmore, W.Va.)
- ◆ Mar. 3: Wakemans Grove (668 Wakemans Grove Rd., Edinburg, Va.)

The denomination's web site (www.brethren.org) explains the importance of these meetings being held across the brotherhood:

“We are committed to engaging as many people as possible in the process, providing opportunities for individuals to give voice to their passions and concerns, listen to one another, and work together to identify common threads and themes that might point to a shared and compelling vision.

“As we embark on this journey together, it is our prayer that: our relationships with one another will be strengthened and deepened, transcending points of disagreement; we will be able to celebrate the ongoing presence and activity of God's Spirit at work among us; we will be open to what God is calling us to do together as Christ's disciples; the vision ultimately articulated will lay claim to our hearts and our minds, our imaginations and our spirits, shaping our identity and inspiring our ministry at the congregational level, the district level, and the denominational level; and we will wholeheartedly embrace the challenge set before us by that vision, affirming contextual creativity as we actively seek to embody that vision.”

Annual Conference will explore the results from these meetings in July. Please pray for wisdom, grace and unity for all these discussions.