IDEAS AND IMAGININGS:
WAYS TO CARE FOR EACH OUR MOST VULNERABLE FOLK

1. Create a list of folks with limited mobility and access. Make sure these lists contain primary ways of contacting those individuals.
2. Create a phone tree and card tree for folks with limited access.
3. Check with local government and law enforcement officials regarding neighborhood needs.
4. Review deacon funds and outreach funds to ensure resources are available to those who may need assistance.
5. Schedule pastors or deacon time when individuals can talk about specific areas of concern. This should be done via phone or whatever available means of communication.
6. Activate and utilize prayer chains
7. Other

Kevin Daggett and John Jantzi

SABBATH REST AND SELF-CARE

1. Tune in to churches who are going on-line with their worship services.
2. Read one of the gospels in one sitting.
3. Have an extended time of prayer and praise.
4. Have a family hymn sing around the piano.
5. Find a quiet spot in nature and enjoy a time of praise and meditation.
6. Cultivate spiritual practices that we may have been neglecting.
7. Spend extra time praying for people to come to know Jesus.
8. Spend extra time praying about whatever’s on your mind or just praising God.
9. Spend extra time praying for your church, your family, and your government leaders.

Jan Orndorff and George Bowers

RESOURCE LINKS

Discipleship Ministries of the Church of the Brethren will host a conversation and time of sharing about going online this weekend. Use the link below to register and get the meeting link.

When: Tues., Mar 17, 1 p.m. EST (12 p.m. Central Time US and Canada)
Topic: Church Online

Register in advance for this webinar: https://zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_RX2gwafXS8Sspp1qM9s6RA
After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the webinar.