Kohelet Fellowship is per family. The Fellowship consists of designated learning opportunities. At least two programs will be available to choose from. If two parents participate, tuition credit is $1,500. If one parent participates, tuition credit is $750. Single parents may elect to have another family member as his/her partner in learning (e.g., sibling, grandparent) in order to earn the maximum tuition credit.*

Fellowship credits will be applied upon completion of the Fellowship learning program. Each family is limited to participating no more than 3 times in Fellowship programs in the course of their enrollment at Kellman Brown.

Fellowship spaces are limited. Early sign-ups are encouraged in order to secure a spot in the programs.

Additional tuition assistance may be available. Please inquire for more information.
