
Table of Contents

Unit 1: Deciding Where to Track Group Involvement

What are groups?	4
Functionality that Classes, Activities, and Small Groups share	5
Functionality that is unique to Classes.....	10
Functionality that is unique to Activities	13
Functionality that is unique to Small Groups	14
Additional data fields in Classes.....	16
Additional data fields in Small Groups	17
Deciding which Group-tracking tool to Use.....	18

Unit 2: Managing Classes and Activities

Understanding Master Groups, Categories, and Roster Level groups	21
Creating new Master Groups.....	21
Adding Categories to Master Groups	28
Adding Roster Level groups	29
Using events for tracking extracurricular activities	31
Using events for tracking classes during multiple services	31
Adding individuals to a group	32
Dropping individuals from a group.....	35
Transferring an individual between Classes	36
Viewing a group's roster (including history).....	38
Keeping group structures clean.....	42

Unit 3: Managing Group Involvement at the Individual Level

Viewing an individual's group information (including history)	44
Adding a Group to an Individual's Record	45
Editing an individual's group information.....	48
Dropping a Group from an Individual's Record	48

Unit 4: Tracking Participation in Classes and Activities

Printing attendance marking sheets and grids	50
Marking attendance in ACS for Windows	53
Using the attendance inquiry in ACS for Windows	55
Marking attendance in Access ACS	56
Viewing attendance markings in Access ACS.....	57
Attendance reports	58
Tracking attendance trends.....	60