

St. John's Cottage Meeting Summaries

May 2006

Finance

There was substantial sentiment that the church should reduce its debt, avoid credit, have better financial management, and better communication with the congregation. Most concerns were grouped into the following themes:

- Debt reduction had significant sentiment comprising of 57 comments
- Meeting our apportionments
- Better communications including having the trustees report to the congregation
- Spending more on missions.