

A still life illustration of a desk with a lit candle, several rolled-up scrolls, an open book of text, a quill pen, and inkwells. The scene is set on a wooden desk with a blue cloth background. A single lit candle in a brass holder provides the light source, casting a warm glow. Four rolled-up scrolls are arranged around the desk, some partially unrolled. An open book with dense text lies in the center. A quill pen rests on a small wooden tray next to two inkwells, one containing blue ink. The overall atmosphere is one of quiet study and historical significance.

Stewardship Scriptures

• The earth is the Lord's, and everything in it, the world, and all who live in it.

Psalm 24:1

• For every animal of the forest is mine, and the cattle on a thousand hills.

Psalm 50:10

•Honor the LORD
with your wealth, with the first fruits of all your crops; then your barns will be filled to overflowing, and your vats will brim over with new wine.

Philippians 4:19

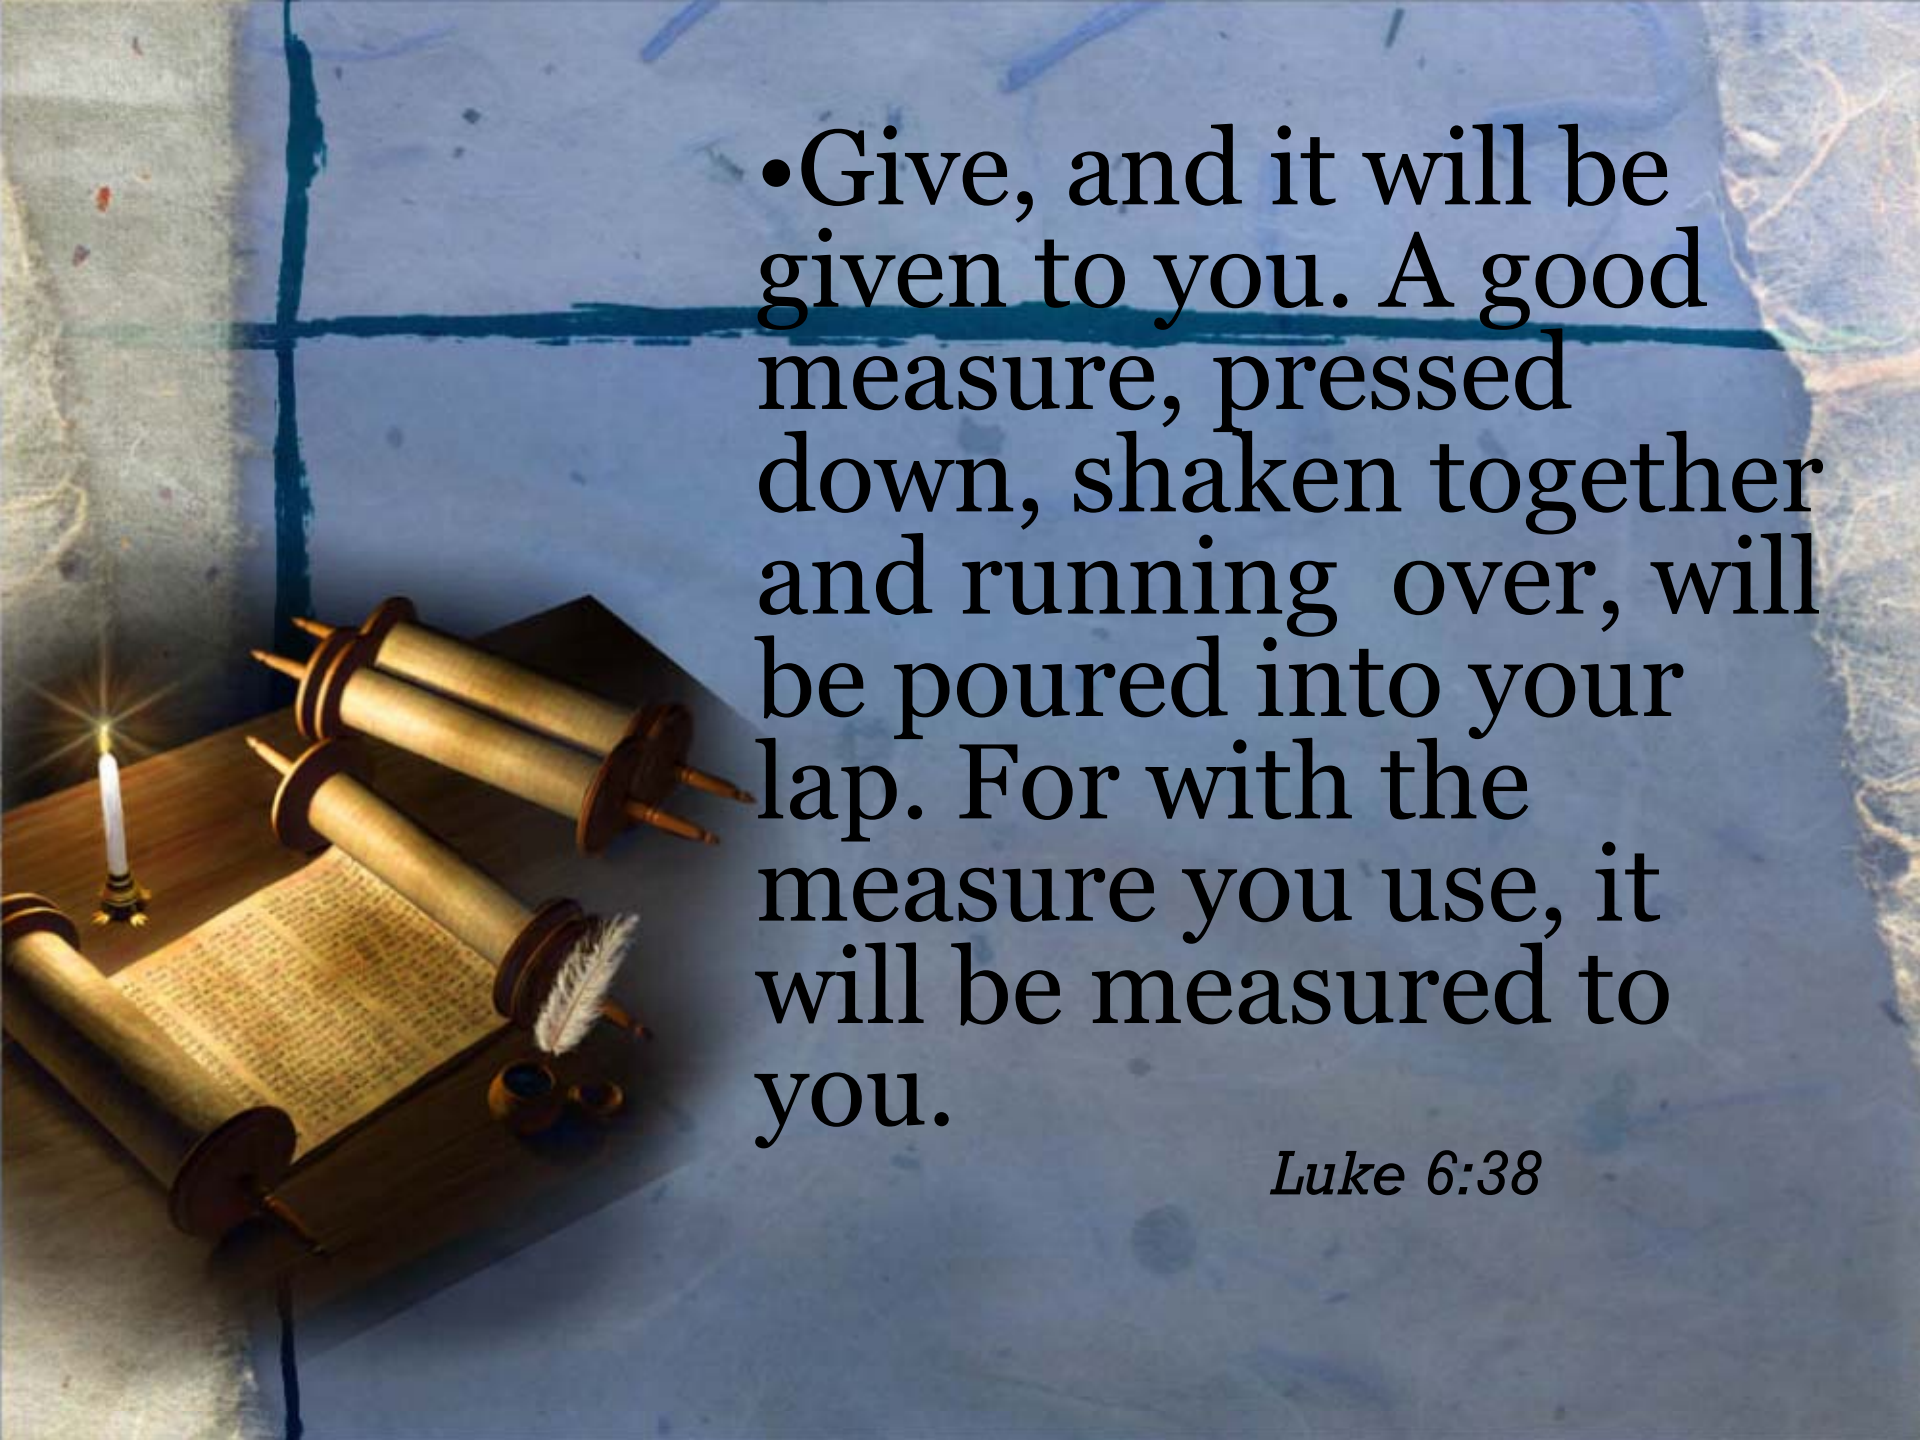

• And my God will meet all your needs according to his glorious riches in Christ Jesus.

Philippians 4:19

• From everyone who has been given much, much will be demanded; and from the one who has been entrusted with much, much more will be asked.

Luke 12:48

A still life illustration of a study desk. In the foreground, a wooden desk holds several rolled-up scrolls of parchment. One scroll is unrolled, showing dense handwritten text. A lit candle in a small brass holder sits on the desk, casting a warm glow. A quill pen lies on the desk next to a small inkwell. The background is a textured, light blue wall with a dark blue cross-like shape. The overall scene is dimly lit, emphasizing the candle's light.

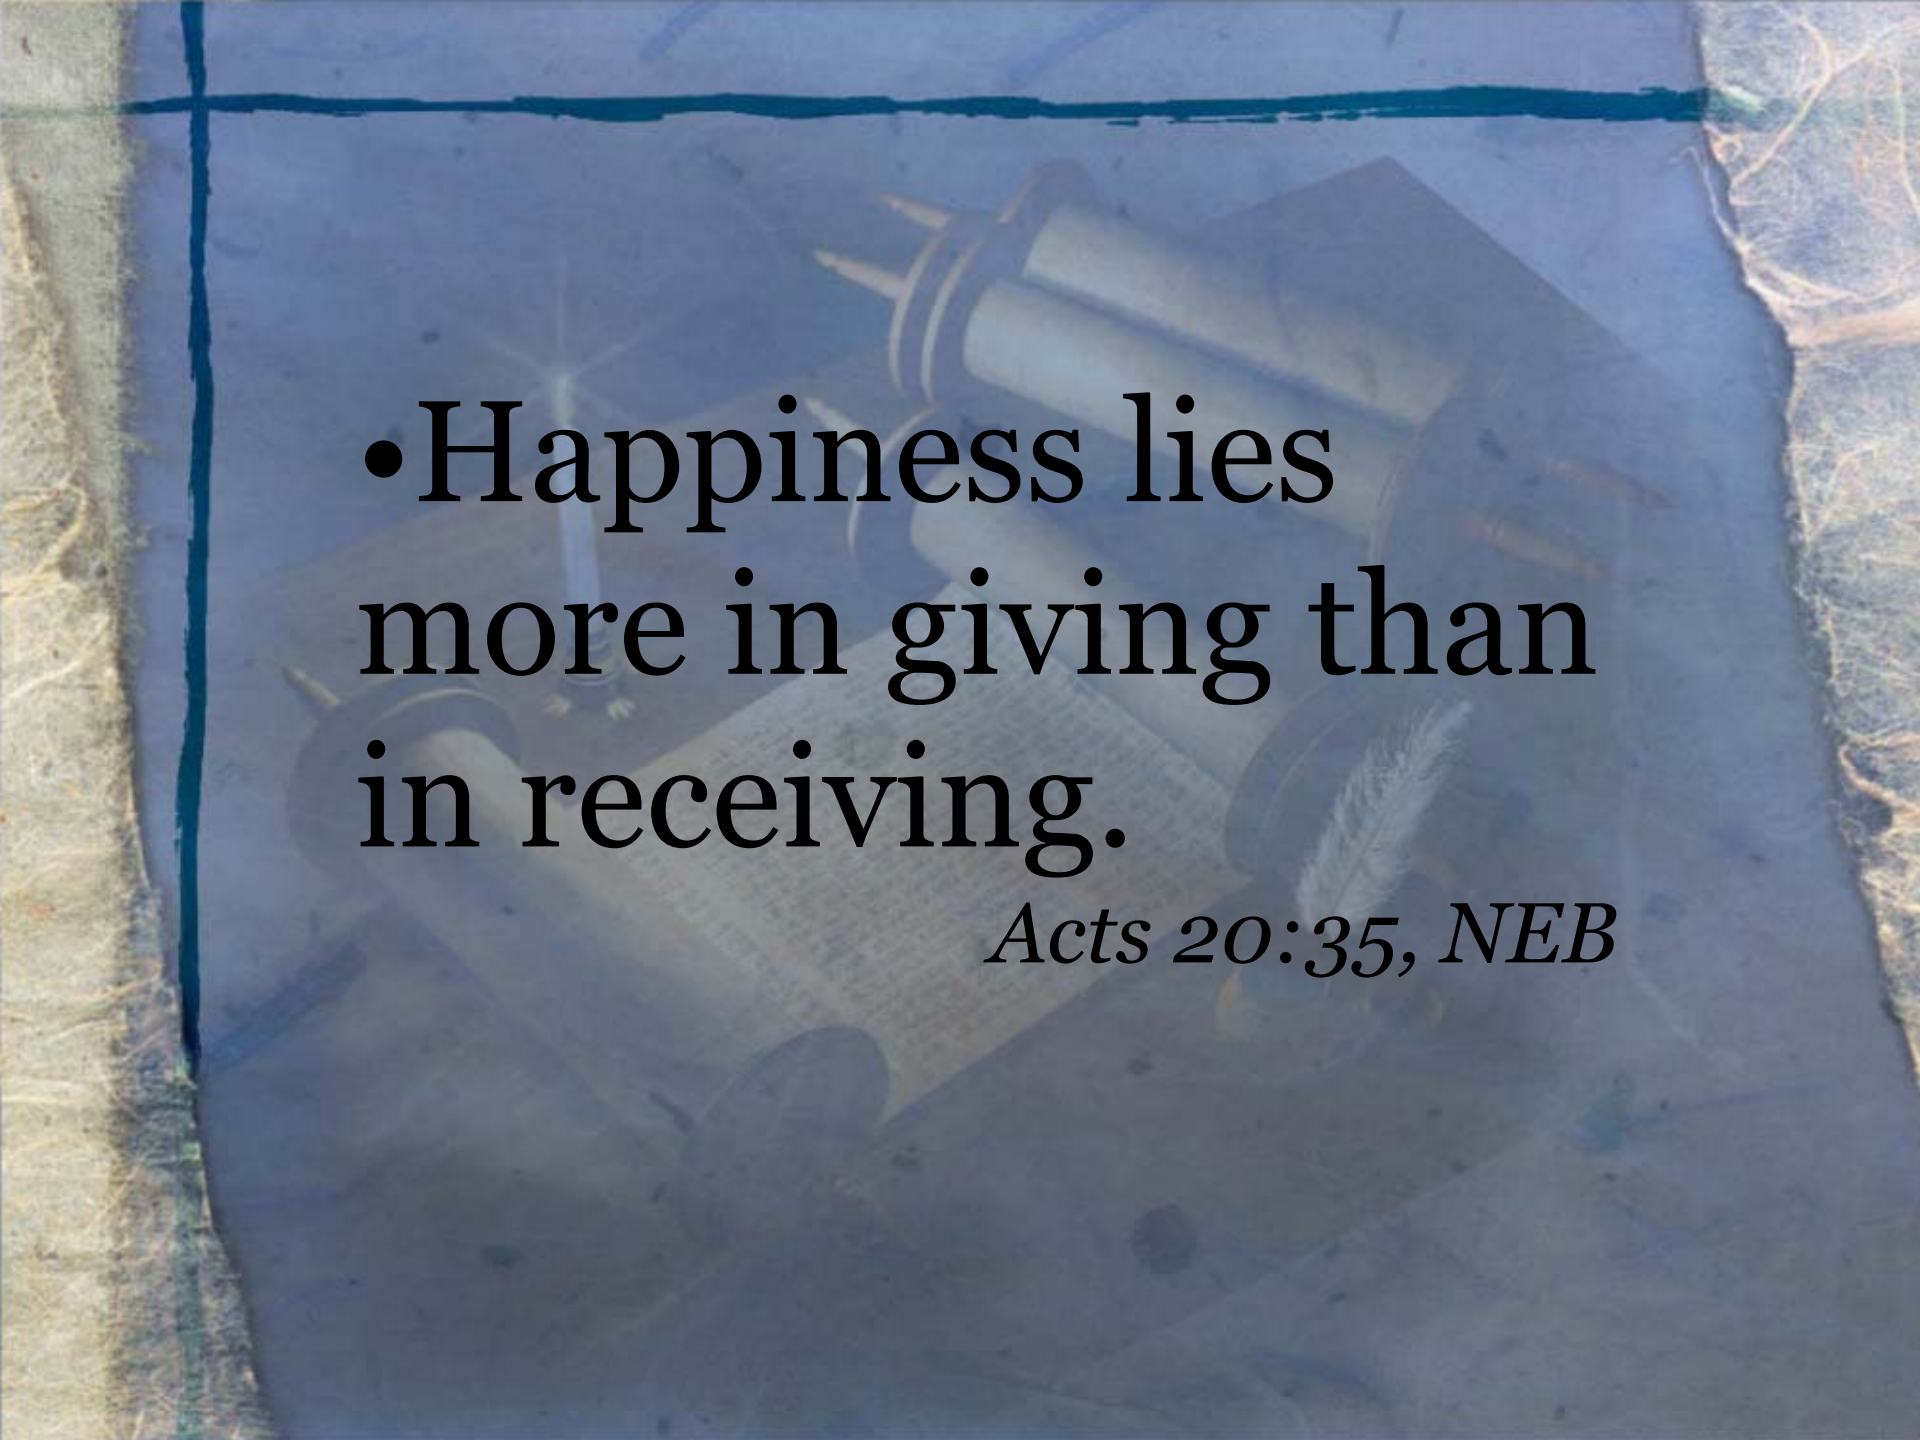

•Give, and it will be given to you. A good measure, pressed down, shaken together and running over, will be poured into your lap. For with the measure you use, it will be measured to you.

Luke 6:38

- Remember this:
Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously.

2 Corinthians 9:6

- Happiness lies more in giving than in receiving.

Acts 20:35, NEB

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHTS

• There was a man,
though some did
count him mad,
the more he cast
away, the more he had.

John Bunyan

•Our bodies, our minds, our spirits are all created by God. Our talents, gifts, and abilities are given to us by God.

Stan Toler

• We cannot do what God does and God will not do what we can do!

Stan Toler

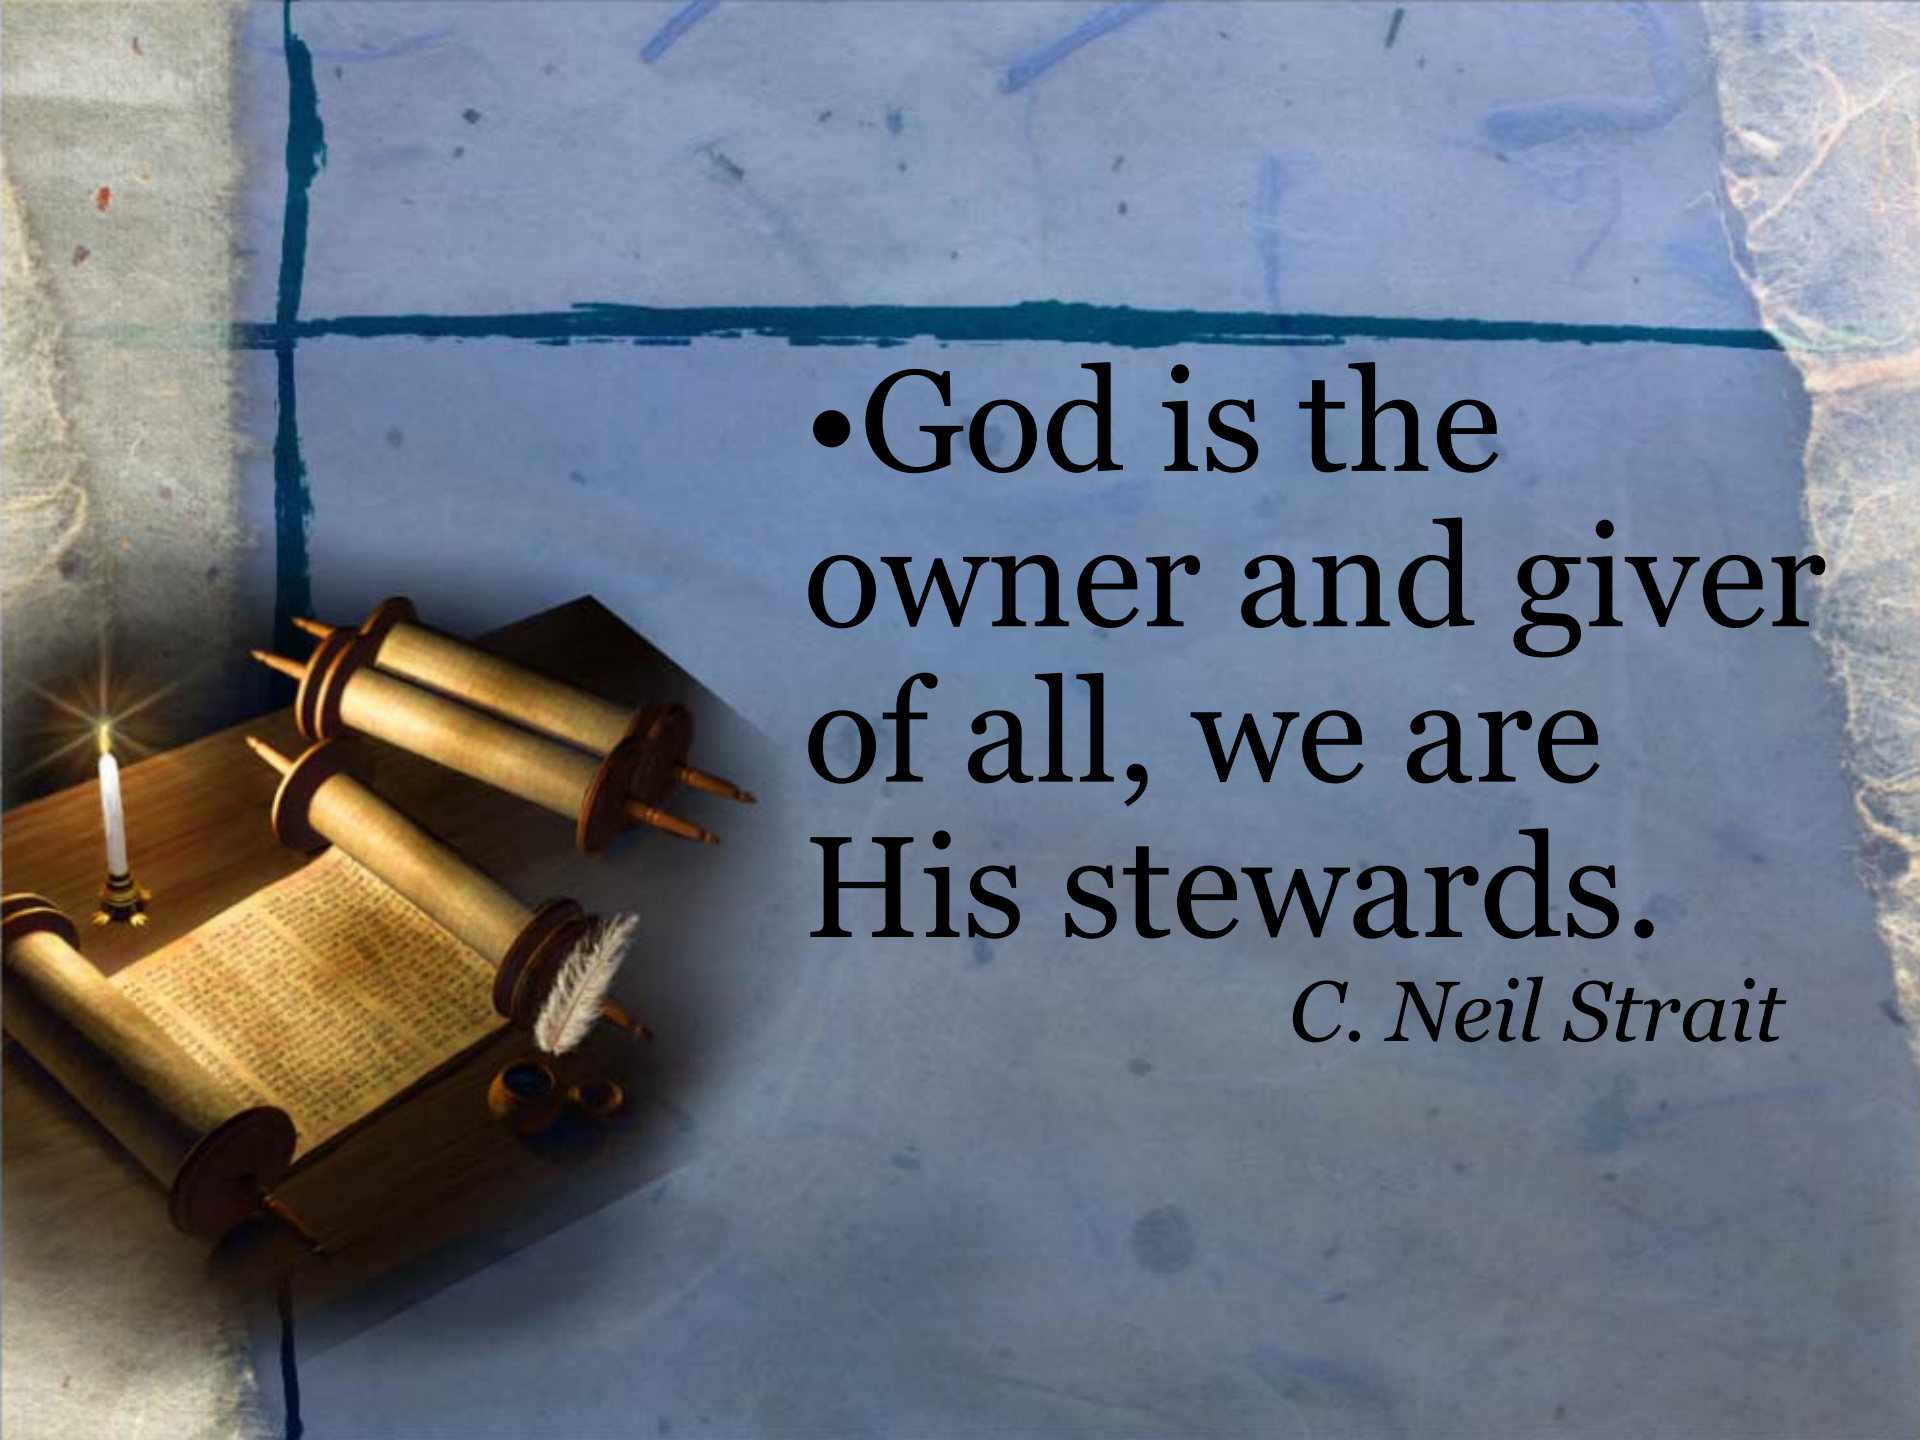

• Jesus Christ is the supreme example of giving living. Such generosity “demands my soul, my life, my all!”

•Tithing is not a matter of money, it is an issue of trust.

John Maxwell

• God is the owner and giver
of all, we are His stewards.

C. Neil Strait

• Generous giving produces rejoicing in one's soul.

David M. Vaughn

• Giving to God should be a time of worship, rejoicing, and celebration. Giving is our grateful response to God for all things.

Stan Toler

•Giving should not be done because of pressure, it should be done through praise and pleasure.

Stan Toler

- Each week we bring our tithes and offerings. They have been lovingly set aside to further the work of the kingdom of God.

Stan Toler

•The work of God is not accomplished by a few tithers. It requires many faithful stewards doing their best.

Stan Toler

•I have never met anyone who tithed who did not tend to be happy about the fact he did. He was not just happy about tithing... but about a lot of other things.

Ben Haden

•I've never met anybody who tithed very long, who gave it up.

Ben Haden

•I have never met anyone who tithed who did not say at some time it has been extremely difficult...

Ben Haden

•Generous people seem to be the happy ones. Miserly people seem to be the unhappy ones. The critical spirit is with those who are not giving people. Just look around you and you can tell.

Ben Haden
