WHAT A PARTY!

Great Bible Study, a patriotic inspired worship service, another adult baptism and...a great July 4th Church-Wide Picnic. It is always wonderful to have the different congregations all worshipping together. So many people helped in so many ways, I could not begin to name them. Our entire Kitchen Team, Iron Chef Billy Hebert, the decorating team, everyone that brought food and the army of volunteers that cleaned up! It is not easy to throw a good party for 300 of your closest friends. Great job everyone.

By the way, we put away 200 hamburgers, 200 hotdogs, 40 pounds of potato salad, a whole lot of baked beans, 5 watermelons and a really nice variety of deserts. Please join me in a special prayer of thanksgiving for the glorious weather. How could it have been better?

TRAVELING THIS WEEK

Janie and I will be away for a few days this week. We will be officiating a wedding for some of our dear friends. The wedding will take place in Louisville, Kentucky. We always enjoy traveling and always enjoy coming back home even more. Ted and Brent will be here and available should you need them. You will be in our thoughts while we are away.

CHECK IT OUT

Have you checked out the church web site lately? You can find it at www.jamesislandbaptist.com. It is managed by Jess Gordon. She has done a really nice job making it user friendly. Here is something you might not expect. We have had several new members who joined JIBC who said they first found out about us through our web site. The second interesting thing is that more and more members and friends are giving their tithes and offerings online. That is relatively new to our church life. It has proved to be a blessing to everyone involved. Check it out, it will surprise you.

See you soon,

Pastor Tom

Quarterly Ministry Conference will be held on July 14 at 7 p.m.
