TOO BLESSED TO BE STRESSED

This month we are looking at the Shepherd's Psalm, Psalm 23. We are looking at it from the perspective that our Heavenly Father, our LORD and our Shepherd, knows the struggles we face and has the antidote to the stress we face. Many of us memorized this beautiful chapter as children and have continually found comfort from its words over the years. What a joy to see new believers, who perhaps for the first time are discovering the comfort of these inspired words.

This past Sunday we focused on God's promise to "restore our souls". We looked at how He does that. Remember this little nugget: "What happened to you in the past may explain why you are how you are; what explains why you stay that way". Trust the Good Shepherd to do what He says He will do.

This coming week we will focus on the verse 3, "He leads me in paths of righteousness". How does God lead us? How do you know if something is the will of God and the leading of the Holy Spirit? We can count on this, He wants to lead us more than we want to be led. What is it that we need to be led by God and what is it that hinders us from clearing hearing Him?

CHILDREN'S CAMP

Please keep next week's Children's Camp at Bonnie Doone in your prayers. It is always a wonderful week of worship, Bible Study and fun. Felecia and her team always provide a great adventure for the children. There will most likely be several children who will make professions of faith during camp. That is always tender to my heart since it was at a church camp that I became a follower of Jesus.

See you Sunday, good Lord willing.

NEW ORLEANS KATRINA UPDATE

Charles and Judy Dillon had a break in at The Carpenters House. The thieves stole everything but the clothes to be given to the poor. That means they are without anything for the kitchen. This is where they feed the teams coming to serve as well as the place to prepare the food to feed the poor. If you would like to donate a Walmart card or any kitchen items, pots, pans, bowls, utensils, etc, please drop them by the church office. If you have a large item or a large amount, please call and we will arrange to pick them up.

JAMES ISLAND OUTREACH

If you would like to be a part of the James Island Outreach you may sign up at the main bulletin board, call the church office(762-0244) or call David Miller (532-1817). You may sign up to volunteer for one day, one day a week, one day a month or one day a year. There are various levels of service ranging from bagging groceries, greeting clients, stocking shelves or entering data into Charity Tracker.

Missions

BUCKETS OF HOPE FOR HAITI

Remember the project "Buckets of Hope"? There were a total of 155,000 buckets of food supplies given. Some have already been distributed and some are still waiting to be cleared through government red tape. Continue to pray for the buckets of hope to arrive and to be a blessing.
