Churches Seeking a Pastor

• Midway • Nine Forks

From the Associational Missionary

There are many missions' opportunities at this time of year. I have heard so many good reports from teams returning as well as continuing mission's efforts from our local churches in their communities. May we have the eyes of Jesus as we work, play, and pray every day. Forming relationships that lead to a relationship with Jesus is our marching orders. Thanks for all you do to do the Great Commission.

Sending Your Seniors off to College?

Do you have seniors heading off to college this fall? Have you thought about how you will help them in their journey with Christ during this season of change for them? One of the greatest opportunities for students who are heading off to college this fall is to get connected to the Baptist Collegiate Ministry (BCM) on their campus. I serve as the BCM Director at Clemson University and truly believe that college students can change the world for Christ. BCM will offer student's opportunities to grow as disciples of Jesus, participate in His mission to the nations and connect with local churches in the campus community. Baptist Collegiate Ministry will make a difference in student's lives. Have you told them about BCM?

For more info about BCM around the state check out www.sbcm.org. For more info about Clemson BCM check out www.clemsonbcm.org. Doug Hunt, Director, Clemson Baptist Collegiate Ministry
