SENIOR ADULT LUNCHEON

Senior adults, need some fun to help cheer you up on these cold wintry days? Well come join us on January 18 at our Senior Adult Luncheon where we'll have some good old PICKIN' AND GRINNIN' by Charles Hanley, David King, Fred Norris and David Singleton. In addition to the great entertainment we'll enjoy a wonderful meal catered by Four Seasons. The menu for that day includes chicken pot pie, green beans, macaroni and cheese, with peach cobbler for dessert – all for just $5.00 per person. Invite your friends, then sign up or call the church office to reserve your place. It all happens on Monday, Jan. 18, at 11:30 am. Come join the fun!

WOMEN OF JOY CONFERENCE

It's time to start thinking about the Women of Joy conference in Charleston! We all had a great time last year and look forward to going again. For those of you who didn't attend last year, the great thing about this conference is that you have lots of free time to shop and enjoy Charleston. The featured speaker is Priscilla Shirer and there will also be a concert by Michael W. Smith & Steven Curtis Chapman! The dates are May 14-16. Please check your calendars and let Amy Wurst or Meleah Thomas know if you would like to attend. We are going to try and book early enough to make our reservations through the conference this year, which requires us to move quickly! Costs are detailed below. We will need to get a $25 deposit by Sunday January 24 to reserve your space. Cost is $149 per person (includes conference and hotel) for 4 person rooms, or $209 per person for 2 person rooms. Balance will be due by March 1. Check out www.womenofjoy.org for more info.
