FROM THE PASTOR

Last summer I bought a book titled The Rest of God. As you might surmise, the book chronicles the subject of “rest” in the scriptures. We think about God resting at the end of the creation event, even though God was not tired; however, it suggests the importance of the concept of rest. Second, we think about the Old Testament concept of Sabbath, the sabbatical year, and the year of jubilee. Third, we consider the idea of rest as “resting in the Lord” and leaning upon Him for support. Last, we think about heavenly rest as we consider the idea of rest in the Bible.

As summer begins, most of us will be taking vacation, even though many will take “staycations” because of the high price of gas. Vacation is needed time to get away, recharge our batteries, think, retool, and reflect. Guilt should never accompany vacation. After all, God inaugurated the idea of rest. He also “got away” from time to time. It’s always refreshing to go to Lazarus’ house for some rest and relaxation.

Enjoy your vacation. Try to get away – physically if you can, but at least mentally. Relish your time of rest. God designed you for it.

Sunday School Corner: Proverbs are sayings taken from everyday life intended to serve as practical guidelines to successful living. The Biblical passages for June are taken from the Book of Proverbs which is primarily credited to King Solomon. King Solomon who asked of God for a discerning heart was richly blessed with “wisdom and very great insight, and a breadth of understanding as measureless as the sand on the seashore” (1 Kings 4:29). Let’s examine Solomon’s “Extraordinary Wisdom for Everyday Living.” Remember, Sunday school classes begin at 9:45am. See you Sunday!
Bible Trivia: What is the fourth law that God gave man through Moses?
