FROM THE PASTOR

If you hang around long enough, the theme of the January Bible Study repeats itself. This January we will re-visit the book of Exodus. Since I am preaching on the Ten Commandments, I have been looking at all the books I have on Exodus. One of the books that I am using to prepare these sermons is a book by Page Kelley, one of my seminary professors. It was the book that was studied by Southern Baptist churches for the January Bible Study of 1978. Here we are again, in Exodus, thirty years later.

Kelley keeps referring to a book that was written by another one of my professors, Roy Honeycutt, called These Ten Words. As you might guess, this is a book that deals exclusively with the Ten Commandments. I could sure use it now, but it was written in 1966 and not published any more.

It's frustrating to know that there is a book you desperately need but is out-of-print. I would think some preacher, some where, has this book. Or, perhaps a Sunday school teacher purchased the book years ago.

Who knows? By writing these words, this book just might surface. It surely would come in handy during these next few weeks.

Worlie "Dusty" Rhodes"

Dear Portside,

Thank you to the church family for the love and support shown to my brother during his illness and passing. It will always be remembered. Morris

To the members of Portside Baptist Church,

Thank you to each and every member of your church. I know all our prayers are being answered, as I have gone through two chemo treatments without any problems. My doctor says things are going well. We pray for strength to get through this and appreciate more than you'll ever know the comfort we've received from prayer. Please continue to keep my family and myself in your prayers. We all know when it rains, eventually the sun will shine and we're all healed through prayer. Bless each and every one of you and may He continue His blessing on us! God bless you, Dawn Evans

A Personal Thank You

J.O.Y NOTES

We had a good group at our August J.O.Y. luncheon. Now we have moved on into September. This really is an exciting month! At this time we have scheduled for our Thursday, September 25, 12 noon covered dish luncheon, The Glad Reunion Singers. This is a local group that enjoys sharing their gospel music. There is no charge, but a love offering will be taken. Please start making plans early to join us and invite someone to come with you.

Other events of interest:

Down East Boys in Concert – Saturday, September 13, 2008 at 7:00pm at Miles Road Baptist Church. (See Jo Anne for more details.)
