FROM THE PASTOR

Starting this Sunday, I will begin a ten-part sermon series on the Ten Commandments. I can't remember preaching a series of sermons from this chapter in Exodus, so I am excited about preparing for the sermons.

We have read the Ten Commandments all of our lives, but I wonder if we have really explored the truth of these commandments and applied the truth to our daily living. Some of the commandments are pragmatic in nature while some are more theological in nature.

I'm looking forward to this series of sermons. I will start this Sunday and conclude on November 30, allowing for a vacation week and the celebration of the Lord's Supper on October 12 and Thanksgiving service on November 23.

The following is my schedule of sermons:

- | | | |
|-----|--------------|----------------------|
| 1) | September 7 | "No Other Gods" |
| 2) | September 14 | "No Images" |
| 3) | September 21 | "No Insults" |
| 4) | September 28 | "No Absence" |
| 5) | October 19 | "No Disrespect" |
| 6) | October 26 | "No Murder" |
| 7) | November 2 | "No Adultery" |
| 8) | November 9 | "No Stealing" |
| 9) | November 16 | "No False Testimony" |
| 10) | November 30 | "No Coveting" |

Sunday School Corner: FORGIVENESS!!! When we repent (turn away) of our sins, God willingly forgives us. How do you respond when someone wrongs you? Do you "get even"? Try to work it out? Withdraw and get depressed? Get a lawyer and sue? Bring it before the Lord? Drink alcohol or overeat to sooth the pain? As you guessed—this Sunday's lesson is on forgiveness. How does God want us to react when someone sins again us? Our lesson is taken from the book of Matthew. See you on Sunday at 9:45am.
