Sid Bream - Former Atlanta Brave
"We were excited when we booked Joey for our Wild Game Dinner and we were excited after he spoke. His stories held the audience captive and with the way he brings it home to a point, that was all that we could ask for".

Eddie Salter - TV Personality
"Joey is one of the funniest and best speakers that have been on stage with. He knows the outdoors and better yet, he knows the Creator".

Steve Handy - Radio Personality
"Joey has mastered the art of storytelling to present you a life changing message".

Clear Presentation of the Gospel
(800 decisions for Christ Jan.-March '07)

Sponsored by the R.E.A.L.
Men's Ministry of FBC Rock Hill

What is R.E.A.L. Men?

Reconciliation (2 Cor. 5:18)

We live in a society that is fragmented by issues and where people are identified by group or characteristic. Jesus has called us to more. He has called us to be one body and to have a ministry of reconciliation in a broken world.

Evangelism (Acts 13:47; Rom. 10:1)

Men need purpose. People need hope. There is no greater purpose than to share the salvation of Jesus Christ with a lost, hopeless world. A message of hope, of life, of love – a message the world needs to hear.

Accountability (Prov. 27:17)

Integrity, Purity, Honor, Trustworthy

Godly traits, but difficult to achieve. Living authentically requires a commitment to transparency and openness with other men that will enable us to walk the path of righteousness and godliness.

Leadership (Joshua 24:15)

To provide guidance and direction – in the home, the church, and the community. That is the role of a leader. That is the duty of a man. Men cannot sit back and let forces drive our lives but must commit to an intentional involvement that will influence our world for God.
