Attention Parents

Our ministry to your family and your child's safety is very important to us. To help ensure the safety of your child when leaving services, we ask that only ADULTS come to pick them up. This does not include older siblings or youth. We appreciate your help and know that you will help us continue to offer a quality ministry to families with children. If you have questions or need more information, please contact Teresa at tgodwin@southsidebaptist.org.
